"Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age."

Matthew 28:19-20
THE DeARMOND MISSIONS COMMITTEE
PURPOSE AND GUIDELINES

PURPOSE

The purpose of the committee is to design and support opportunities which will provide an atmosphere for stimulating and nurturing missions involvement among Carson-Newman students and others to the glory of God.

COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP

1. The committee shall consist of:
   A. Four groups of six persons serving four-year terms for a total of 24 members
   B. Ex Officio members
   C. Advisory Board members
   D. Connected Carson-Newman faculty/staff
2. Committee members shall be named by the Nominating Committee.
3. The committee shall be composed of 24 persons. These persons should represent a broad background and have evidenced mission interest and mission support.
4. Committee members shall be dedicated Christians committed to the purpose of the committee. Committee members’ opportunities and responsibilities:
   A. Love for missions – willing to serve
   B. Attend meetings
   C. Pray
   D. Assist in securing funds for the committee
   E. Suggest potential members for the committee
   F. Be willing to make individuals/churches aware of the purpose of the committee
   G. Be available to participate in and promote projects sponsored by the committee
5. The committee shall strive to include lay persons, church staff ministers, and Carson-Newman College representatives.
6. Each member shall serve a four-year term. Unexpired terms shall be filled by the Nominating Committee.
7. Carolyn DeArmond Blevins and Ray DeArmond shall serve as Ex Officio members of the committee.
8. The chairperson, a vice-chairperson, secretary, and other officers deemed necessary by the committee shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee. Officers will serve a two-year term.
9. In the event any member should find they cannot serve (for any reason) they should submit a written resignation to the Nominating Committee.
ADVISORY BOARD MEMBERS

1. Advisory Board members shall be named to lend particular expertise or information to the work of the committee. State mission leaders will be among those considered for Advisory Board members.

2. The Nominating Committee shall name Advisory Board members.

3. Advisory Board members must be nominated each year. The term of an Advisory Board member is determined by common consent and agreement annually by the Nominating committee and the Advisory Board member.

4. Advisory Board members shall serve in an advisory capacity to members of the committee.

COMMITTEE MEETINGS

1. The committee shall meet four times a year.

2. These scheduled dates will be announced at the last meeting of each year for the following academic year.

3. The chairperson of the committee, in collaboration with the Director of Campus Ministries, is responsible for calling regular and special meetings of the committee, making necessary arrangements, and seeing that notification of members occurs.

4. Regular meetings are conducted at the committee’s agreed time and location.

5. Meetings could be cancelled due to inclement weather. Members will be notified by email/and or phone call if this is necessary.

RELATIONSHIPS

1. The DeArmond Missions Committee shall relate to the Campus Ministries Department, Appalachian Outreach Ministries, Church Relations, and the Center for International Education and Missions.

2. The Administrative Assistant of the Campus Ministries Department shall offer assistance to the chairperson and other officers when needed.

3. A financial statement of the funds available through the DeArmond Endowment shall be provided the committee at each meeting.
REPORTS

1. Written reports shall be submitted to the chairperson two weeks prior to the regular meetings by the Director of Campus Ministries, Executive Director of Appalachian Outreach and Director of Appalachian Outreach Ministries. These reports will be sent to committee members via email and/or snail mail for preview before the meeting. This will enable committee members to come prepared to make comments, suggestions, and ask questions.

2. Sub-committees shall submit written reports to the committee chairperson prior to the meetings. These reports will be placed on the agenda as a line item.
