A Message From The Vice President for Student Affairs

Welcome to Carson-Newman College! It is an honor to have you join us whether you are a first-time freshman or a transfer student. The Student Affairs team wants to help make your experience here a special one as you make Carson-Newman your college home.

This marks the beginning of a new chapter in your life. How this chapter unfolds will be determined by you as you make key decisions and commitments which will influence the rest of your life. I want to share with you some basic advice to help you excel during your college years.

- Have Fun! Life is Gift and is meant to be enjoyed. College is a significant part of your life, indeed some of the most significant years. How do you have fun at C-N? Get involved! Take advantage of the more than 60 student organizations and the fantastic intramurals program we have here. Invest your time and energies in the innumerable opportunities we have for serving those around us, both locally and globally. Make this place your home. Make friends who will last a lifetime. Have Fun being a scholar, spreading your intellectual wings, gaining new skills and enhancing old ones. Have Fun loving God with all your heart, soul, mind and strength!

- Pay Attention! YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR YOU! Every decision & every outcome. Pay attention to all you are responsible for academically. Show up for class prepared. Meet every deadline for class assignments. Pay attention to what is required of you in terms of conduct. READ THIS STUDENT HANDBOOK! It is a valuable resource for your success at Carson-Newman. This handbook contains policies, procedure, and services offered here. As you begin your journey of making important decisions that will impact nearly every aspect of your life, I encourage you to read this document carefully, to become acquainted with the college code of conduct, and to ask questions if you need clarification. You can find additional valuable resources on our website (www.cn.edu/studentaffairs). Pay attention to your inward self, your spiritual being. No one is going to force you to be fed spiritually, but there are so many opportunities for you to grow spiritually while you are here- literally, every day of the week. Take advantage of several of them!

- Work Hard! Discipline, not desire, determines Destiny. Work hard at maintaining the discipline necessary to seek excellence and maintain balance within the academic, spiritual, physical and moral aspects of your life. Work Hard in co-operating with God to call the best you have out of yourself.

Carson-Newman College is a special place, a place of transformation. We are blessed to have you join us and we welcome you as a new member of our Carson-Newman family. Let us know if and when we can aid you in your journey toward excellence.

In Thanksgiving and Hope,
Ross Brummett

The department maintains a daily crime log in its office that is open to the general public to view upon request. The Eagle Eye Security Guide, published annually by the department, depicts all crimes occurring on the campus or adjacent to the campus (as required by the Campus Safety Act and the Department of Education) for the past three years. Please note that the Department Of Education and the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation crime reporting requirements differ from one another as defined within the guide.

The College also has an emergency contact service called e2Campus Alert System which is designed to disseminate text messages to cell phone users when any serious emergency situation exists, to include criminal offenses, inclement weather and pandemic events. Users may sign up for the text alert by logging onto the C-N website at: http://cnweb.cn.edu and follow the simple instructions. The system allows members to maintain the service for a total of two (2) years and then they must reenroll. There is no charge for being a member, except for any text charges from your respective phone providers.

The department further regulates the parking program on campus, sells parking hangtags, issues parking tickets for parking violations and holds traffic appeal hearings for those who wish to appeal their alleged violations. For more information, refer to the section of this handbook labeled CAMPUS PARKING REGULATIONS.

In the event of a life-threatening emergency, please dial the Jefferson County E-911 dispatch and ask for immediate assistance. Student Body President
STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Student Life at Carson-Newman is overseen by the Division of Student Affairs. It includes both curricular and co-curricular programs to help students develop holistically in preparation for life after college. Student development at Carson-Newman is based on the wellness model, which has six dimensions: spiritual, intellectual, social, physical, emotional, and vocational.

Over 60 student clubs, groups and organizations are chartered each year which provide opportunity for student learning, leisure, and leadership development. Each organization must be chartered through the Student Activities Office on a year-to-year basis. Campus wide events must be scheduled a minimum of five days in advance through the Student Activities office. The Office of the Provost and appropriate professors should be informed of activities which could affect class attendance.

In terms of planning campus wide events, a first-come-first-served policy is followed for reserving dates, times, and places. Any change must receive the approval of the Student Activities office and notice of cancellation of any event must be submitted at least 24 hours in advance of the event. This allows for utilization of the facilities on that date and time by another group. Activities involving the securing of outside musical groups or professional acts must be arranged with the approval of the Student Activities office.

Each student group is classified as either a "club," “group,” or “organization” and is listed in the Directory for Chartered C-N Clubs, Groups, and Organizations provided by the Student Activities office annually. To be listed in the Directory, a club, group, or organization must keep its yearly registration current. Chartered organizations will be allowed to meet in college facilities, receive organizational information from the Student Activities office, be invited to participate in activities, and be included in publications associated with the co-curriculum.

ORGANIZATIONAL VALUES STATEMENT

Chartered clubs, groups, and organizations at Carson-Newman must be consistent with the mission of the college. They enrich campus life, promote student growth, and advance the purposes of the institution. These organizations reflect the following values, central to the college’s purpose, in their programs, activities and events.
Scholarship
The fundamental pursuit of higher education is to acquire the academic foundation for effective citizenship and a productive life. Each chartered organization should contribute to this pursuit by rewarding, encouraging, and supporting the academic achievement of its members.

Philanthropy
A commitment to the welfare of others is central to the identity of Carson-Newman College. Effective organizations exhibit this commitment through volunteerism, fundraising, and service activities benefiting the campus and community. Members should be encouraged to participate in such opportunities as they provide valuable learning experiences, improve public relations, and build unity among participants.

Character
Carson-Newman prepares men and women of strong character to serve society. Organizations assist in this preparation by setting and maintaining high standards of conduct for members, and by enlisting members in the kind of active leadership, service, and interaction that test and refine character.

Leadership
The development of Christian leaders is a primary focus of the Carson-Newman experience. Organizations contribute to this process when they invest in the success of their members through developmental programs and activities that recognize, refine, and rely upon effective leadership skills.

Community
A community characterized by cultural awareness, social concern, aesthetic sensitivity, personal responsibility, and a Christian understanding of life is integral to the college’s success. Organizations help create this community when they engage the campus in activities, encourage campus-wide involvement by members, develop partnerships with other campus entities, and celebrate diversity in programs and policies.
CLASSIFICATIONS, DEFINITIONS, AND REPORTING RESPONSIBILITIES ASSOCIATED WITH CLUBS, GROUPS AND ORGANIZATIONS

It is important to note the distinctions and definitions associated with clubs, groups, and organizations. Classifications denote responsibility and direct or indirect oversight.

What is a club? A club reflects a special interest. It is a chartered entity that meets regularly for this specific purpose. Special interest clubs may not conflict with the college’s values and mission. All such student entities are required to be chartered with the Student Activities Office and must do so to use campus email, reserve a room on campus, setup an agency account or put up posters and flyers. Clubs do not receive college funding and are advised by faculty/staff members.

What is a group? A group is a chartered entity with a stated purpose that supports the mission of the college and is service-oriented. Groups do not receive college funding and are advised by faculty/staff members.

What is an organization? An organization is defined as a chartered entity operating with funds designated by the college or Baptist denomination and is advised through the division of Student Affairs. Only recognized and chartered organizations may use the Carson-Newman seal, letterhead, and name for promotion and publication. These organizations contribute to the development of students in conjunction with Student Affairs. Baptist Collegiate Ministries, Eagle Production Company, Student Ambassadors Association, and Student Government Association are currently the four chartered and recognized organizations at Carson-Newman College.

Persons may not utilize a student club, group or organization meeting for any purpose that is different from or inconsistent with the organization’s stated purpose. Compliance is the responsibility of the advisor. Complaints associated with improper use of chartered or recognized entities should be addressed first to the faculty/staff advisor and second to the Student Activities Director. It is the department head’s responsibility to review concerns and discuss them with the organization’s advisor and officers. The Director may take appropriate action if deemed necessary. Clubs, groups and organization charters may be revoked by Student Activities if found not to be following the stated purpose for which they were chartered.

GUIDELINES FOR ALL CLUBS, GROUPS, AND ORGANIZATIONS

1. All members and organizational activities must maintain a standard of behavior that is consistent with college values as stated in the Eagle Student Handbook. Activities that involve hazing or any violation of the college code of conduct are prohibited.

2. All organizations must comply with federal, state and local laws, including but not limited to all federal and state non-discrimination laws.

3. An annual petition for charter must be submitted for approval through the Student Activities office; final approval rests with the Vice President for Student Affairs. The application must clearly state the purpose of the club, group, or organization. The purpose will be consistent with the mission of the college. A copy of the club, group, or organization constitution and by-laws must accompany the application and be included on a yearly basis.

4. Chartered clubs, groups, and organizations that are nationally affiliated must submit a current copy of the national constitution and by-laws (if applicable).

5. Each organization shall have an advisor (C-N faculty or staff) who is approved and registered with the Student Activities office. Organizations may not be chartered without an advisor. Organization advisors are to participate in information sessions related to responsibilities and potential liabilities associated with being an advisor. The organization shall keep its advisor fully informed of the organization’s activities. The faculty/staff advisor has the prerogative to question the club, group, or organization on its activities related to its mission. If at any time the advisor feels that he/she must step down, he/she may do so and the organization must secure another approved advisor (subject to approval of the Student Activities office). Organizations may only operate for two weeks without an advisor. Both the organization and the advisor are responsible for keeping the Student Activities office informed.

6. All activities for the year must be scheduled with the Student Activities office. The online Event Registration tool may be used for this purpose. It may be found on the Student Activities webpage.

7. All pledge activities, and accompanying programs, whether on or off campus, must be approved by the Student Activities Office.

8. The college reserves the right to revoke the registration or deny the operation of any organization that does not abide by the guidelines for campus organizations.

9. Organizations requesting to use campus owned or leased vans or other vehicles must do so with the approval of the Director of Student Activities and the Safety and Security Department. Organizations must use these vehicles only for official trips and drivers must take the college’s driving class and then be placed on the college’s insurance list. The organizations and drivers must adhere to all of the college’s rules and regulations related to driving college owned and/or leased vehicles. Copies of the van policies may be obtained in the Director of Safety and Security’s office. Guests or other persons engaged in official college business or other approved activity may be transported in college owned or leased vehicles with the approval of the Director of Safety and Security.

10. All fund-raising activities must be approved through the Student Activities Office and then forwarded to the Advancement Office for final approval (a form for this approval is available online at the Student Activities webpage or in the Student Activities Office).

11. Funding designated to student organizations and Student Affairs departments by the college is to be used for purposes related to supporting student life. College funds may not be redirected to other agencies or services not directly related to this designated purpose. Service projects are supported by the college, when appropriate, to raise funds for charitable and service-related needs. (Example: Car wash sponsored to raise funds for earthquake relief efforts.)

12. All registered clubs, groups, and organizations may set up an agency account through the Treasurer’s Office (student accounts windows). This account allows student organizations to accumulate funds derived from fund-raising activities and special gifts or donations for current or future use. Funds provided by the college or ministry associations on an annual basis may not be co-mingled with these student organization agency accounts. Approval for creating accounts and managing them is obtained through the Student Activities office (forms are provided for these purposes).

13. Incentives used to entice students to participate in campus clubs, groups and organizations must be authorized through the Student Activities Office to ensure that they are appropriate to the mission of the college. Incentives or "give-aways" can become the primary focus of a club, group or organization meeting. In such a case, they have become inappropriate and distort the purpose (i.e. mission statement) of that club, group or organization. Discretion is given to the Student Activities Director to require any club, group or organization to cease any incentive or give-away program if the Director finds it to be inappropriate.

14. Activities and meetings associated with student clubs, groups, and organizations are not to be held during the final exam period (Friday through Wednesday). Special approval may be granted by the division of Student Affairs.

15. Chartered clubs, groups, or organizations will not plan programs or set up structures that are a duplication of or are in competition with the club, group, or organization itself or other clubs, groups, or organizations without the approval of Student Activities and the Vice President for Student Affairs.
RECOGNIZED “ORGANIZATIONS”

For a chartered organization to hold the additional status of “recognized organization” the following criteria must be met:

1. Must be initiated by the Vice President for Student Affairs and/or approved by the College President’s cabinet. Once the status of “organization” has been obtained, it may be renewed through the annual registration process with the approval of the Vice President for Student Affairs.

2. Must have an advisor who is a member of the college faculty/staff and approved through student activities.

3. Must complete the following process:
   a. Application submitted through the Student Activities office. The application must include a current constitution and copy of the organization’s by-laws.
   b. A review process will take place to consider the organization’s request for recognized status and to review the organization’s constitution and by-laws.
      i. Reviewed by the Director of Student Activities
      ii. Reviewed by the Vice President for Student Affairs
      iii. If recommended by the Vice President for Student Affairs, the President’s cabinet.

4. Changes to the organization’s constitution at any time must be approved through the Student Activities office in consultation with the Vice President for Student Affairs.

5. A copy of the organization’s constitution and by-laws must be kept on permanent file with the Student Activities office and the college archives.

6. Only recognized organizations are allowed to use the College name and seal.

7. Funding provided to organizations is to be used in line with the purpose and mission of the organization as stated in the constitution. Funding is overseen through the Student Activities office and approved by the Vice President for Student Affairs.

8. Student organizations holding recognized status are responsible for submitting reports and minutes and are accountable for their activities and expenditures to Student Affairs. Dispensing of funds associated with required services will be incremental and may be suspended as necessary to ensure follow-through and services.

9. Student organization elections are to operate under the supervision of the Student Activities office with approval of candidate election by the Vice President for Student Affairs. When possible, an electronic or web-based election processes shall apply. In the event of a paper ballot, a review will automatically be conducted through a third party as designated by the Vice President for Student Affairs (e.g. the Dean of Students, Director of Residence Life, Campus Ministries, etc.). Forms are provided in the Student Activities office for the verification of all elected officers.

10. The makeup of committees related to any chartered organization should include consideration for diversity. A cross-section of class standing, gender, and race, etc. should be taken into consideration in order to insure a representative group.

Recognized Organization Constitutions
Constitutions and their by-laws play an important role in the heritage of student leadership at Carson-Newman College. Changes and/or updates to these constitutions are to be a thoughtful process. Additions, deletions, or corrections are to be discussed with the organization advisor and Student Activities. Consideration related to the purpose of current information, which has already been ratified is to be given full discussion. A committee of the organization comprised of at least 5 active student members, the organization advisor and Student Activities must oversee the constitution review process. The committee is to be in on-going discussion with the Vice President for Student Affairs during such a review. The committee is to submit a formal request for any change in writing. The committee must submit the current ratified constitution and by-laws, which the organization is operating under. A “marked copy” tracking additions, deletions, and corrections is to accompany the proposed new constitution and by-laws. The Vice President for Student Affairs may return the constitution to the committee for acceptance, rejection, rewrite, or changes as necessary. Once the draft copy has been approved by Student Affairs, the committee will then present a copy to the organization for review. A minimum of two weeks between receiving the review and vote for acceptance or rejection is to be provided. A simple majority is required to pass the constitution. The adopted constitution is to be returned to the Vice President for Student Affairs for signature and submission to the college archives providing an on-going history and resource for organizations in the future. Generally, the constitution review process should take place in the spring to allow for ratification with implementation to be designated for the next academic year (fall).

CRITERIA FOR SPEAKERS SPONSORED BY CLUBS, GROUPS, & ORGANIZATIONS

Speakers may not libel, slander, or facilitate non-truths. Any speaker’s message must be in line with the mission of the college.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

General Purpose
The Student Government Association exists to serve and represent the interests, concerns, and ideas of the Carson-Newman student body in association with Student Affairs. It assists in creating an active Christian campus community. The association seeks to promote the welfare of every student and to create an opportunity for students to practice leadership and assist in determining the policies that shape their college experience. SGA is advised by the Director of Student Activities in conjunction with the Dean of Students and the Vice President for Student Affairs. Funding is afforded through the Division of Student Affairs.

Membership
The Student Government Association is composed of every student who pays a student activity fee. All elected and appointed officials of the association shall be full-time students while seeking office and throughout the duration of their term in office. Specific eligibility requirements and the duties of each position are described in the association’s Constitution and Bylaws. The constitution is supervised and supported through Student Affairs. Copies of these documents are available to any student upon request in the Student Government Association office, the Student Activities office, and Student Affairs.

2011-2012 SGA Cabinet
Student Body President ________ Chris Coleman
Student Body Vice President _______ Luke Willoughby
Chief Justice _______________ Devin Gosnell
Secretary of Campus Life __________ Kara Woolsey
Secretary of Finance ____________ Von Jessee
Secretary of Projects and Service _____ Jacob Bellissimo

Information regarding specific officers and representatives is available upon request from the SGA office.

SGA Student Judicial Pool
SGA will advertise and coordinate a sign-up process for students interested in serving on Student Affairs Campus Judicial Boards. The Student Body Secretary will then coordinate the application process. Sophomores, juniors and seniors with a minimum 2.0 grade point average and faculty/administrator recommendation will be eligible to apply. The pool of available students is an option for Student Affairs as a source for board member selection.

SGA Sponsored Bills/Resolutions
The SGA Senate votes on bills as recommendations to the college. If a recommendation is passed by the Senate, it is then presented to the chief administrator in charge of the area related to the legislation (e.g. Director of Residence Life, Safety and Security, Campus Dining). The administrator assesses the validity of the recommendation and may support the recommendation, ask for further review, make suggestions, or decline support. If support is denied, the recommendation is returned to the Senate.

After review and support of the Chief Area Administrator, the recommendation goes through the same procedure with the Vice President for Student Affairs. If support is denied, the recommendation is returned to the Senate.

If the recommendation is supported by the Vice President for Student Affairs, the bill is considered passed and with the signature of the Vice President is enacted, however the Vice President may, in consultation with the President, also submit the bill for review and recommendation to the Cabinet and/or the Student Life Committee of the Board of Trustees. If supported by the Cabinet and/or the Student Life Committee of the Board of Trustees, the recommendation goes to the President of the college for revision, rejection, or approval.

Student Generated Petitions

While The Student Government Association does not generate petitions, it is the responsibility of SGA as the official student voice to field student petitions. If considered appropriate by the Senate to convert a petition into appropriate bills or resolutions, then SGA will follow the process as indicated in the student handbook. Petitions should be submitted to the President of SGA for consideration. The President of SGA is not under obligation to present petitions to the Senate unless deemed appropriate.

STUDENT RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

Carson-Newman College encourages its students to actively participate in and contribute to the academic community. As a Christian institution of higher learning, Carson-Newman strives to promote the development of educated, poised, and refined men and women who share a social and civic conscience. All who are admitted to study at Carson-Newman are welcomed into this special community and are expected to help sustain the college's values.

Carson-Newman College depends upon the willingness of its members to cooperate with one another to promote shared community values and ideas. While this cooperation should extend to all community members and guests, it is especially important to cooperate with those members of the college who have been entrusted with responsibility for the enforcement of behavioral policies and regulations. Such cooperation must include a willingness to identify oneself when asked to do so and a commitment to exclude all actions clearly identifiable as hostile or threatening.

Carson-Newman's expectations regarding student conduct commence when the college initially accepts a student. They apply to the student's conduct wherever the student may be, on or off campus, and when the student is engaged in college related activities and when the student is not.

Community members responsible for enforcement of behavioral policy include administration, faculty, residence life staff, safety & security, students, and student staff. Students who fail to cooperate with these individuals are subject to disciplinary action.

An appropriate administrative judicial board and/or administrative representative, depending on the nature and severity of the violation, will handle violations of policies, and their sanctions. The Student Affairs division makes decisions regarding case assignments.

A student who believes he or she has been the victim of discrimination should make that belief known immediately, and in writing, to the Discrimination and Harassment Officer. If said discrimination occurs during the course of a judicial hearing, the student must immediately bring the concern to the attention of the convener of the hearing.

The President is authorized by the Carson-Newman Board of Trustees to require the withdrawal of any student whose presence in the college for reasons of health, conduct or scholarship does not meet Carson-Newman’s expectations, or whose influence, whether by word or deed, is injurious to other students or to the welfare of the institution.

Carson-Newman students have the right to pursue an education in an environment that is supportive of academic, social, and spiritual growth. Individuals have freedom of expression and inquiry within legal parameters, college policy, and Christian values as noted within Carson-Newman’s mission statement. Students have the right to voice their concerns and opinions through various channels within the college community. Students who have been accused of violating the Carson-Newman Code of Conduct have the right to address specific concerns and opinions as outlined in the Student Handbook with an appropriate college administrator.

COLLEGE CODE OF CONDUCT

The college expects for all students to adhere to a set of ethical and behavioral standards that are reflected in the following code of conduct. Students are thus expected to be honest, respectful of others, helpful to the college’s pursuit of its purpose, law abiding whether on or off campus, and to act in compliance with college policy.

The purpose of publishing this code of conduct is to give students general notice of expected and prohibited conduct. The code is not written with the specificity of a criminal statute. Among the offenses that are subject to disciplinary action are the following:

A. Adherence to the Student Handbook
   Violations include, but are not limited to, failure to comply with the expectations set forth in the Student Handbook.

B. Alcohol and Illicit Drugs
   A violation of alcohol or drug laws while enrolled at the college will subject the student to disciplinary action by the college. In addition, the college prohibits the possession, use, distribution or manufacture of alcohol or of illicit drugs and drug paraphernalia, and the misuse or abuse of prescription or over-the-counter drugs, on its property or as a part of any of its activities, including but not limited to off-campus activities sponsored by the college or engaged in by any recognized student organization. Any student who violates the college’s policy is subject to the college’s disciplinary sanctions and to applicable criminal penalties. (For further information, see the Alcohol and Illicit Drug Policy section in the Student Handbook.)

C. Assault
Violations include but are not limited to a physical or verbal attack that places a reasonable person in immediate danger or in apprehension of such harm or contact. Further examples include but are not limited to physical contact that is extremely offensive or provocative.

D. Computer Misuse
Violations include, but are not limited to, use of college-provided Internet access systems and/or equipment to transmit or receive obscene, abusive, threatening or other messages deemed inappropriate by the college. Additionally, students are to refrain from using a computer or related equipment to disseminate, transfer, enter, alter or gather data by using another person’s or organization’s access code and/or computer without their permission.

E. Discrimination
Harassing another person because of his or her race, religion, sex (physiology), national origin, political ideology, age or disability is not tolerated. Harassment can include verbal or physical conduct that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual and: (1) has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment; (2) has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual’s academic or job performance; or (3) otherwise adversely affects an individual’s educational or employment opportunities. Such harassment is contrary to the Christian standards of conduct expected of all members of the college community including: students, staff and faculty. (For further information, see the Discrimination and Harassment section in the Student Handbook.)

F. Disrespectful Behavior
Violations include, but are not limited to, disruptive, contemptuous or disrespectful treatment of college students, administrators, faculty, staff members, college guests, local authorities, or local community members. Further definition includes interference with the duties of any college administrator, faculty, staff member or local authority.
G. Failure to Comply
Violations include, but are not limited to, failure to comply with the expectations set forth in the Eagle Student Handbook or failure to comply with the reasonable requests of college officials, security officers, or law enforcement officers acting in performance of their duties. This includes failure to identify oneself to these persons when requested to do so. Further definition includes failure to complete disciplinary sanctions assigned by judicial officers.

H. Fighting
Violations include, but are not limited to, assault and/or contention with another person in a physical altercation.

I. Fire Safety Violations
Violations include, but are not limited to, damaging, defacing, destroying, canceling, removing, ignoring or tampering with a fire alarm or other fire safety equipment. Further definition includes failing to vacate a residence hall when a fire alarm sounds or returning to a residence hall following the activation of a fire alarm without the permission of an appropriate official. Unsafe and/or uncontained burning on campus, including the ignition of fireworks, also constitutes a violation.

K. Fraud
Violations include, but are not limited to, the act of deception, trickery, or misrepresentation with the intent of defrauding another individual. Examples include, but are not limited to, misuse of an ID card in the dining hall, residence hall, or library, and the misuse of a CLW attendance card.

L. Gambling
Violations include, but are not limited to, engaging in or encouraging, promoting or aiding participation in any game of hazard or chance for money or other valuable items, and/or possession of gambling paraphernalia, on or off the campus.
M. Harm to person
No student shall cause physical harm or threaten to cause physical harm to person and/or self. In addition, no student shall take any action, which creates a danger to any person’s health, safety, or personal wellbeing (including one’s self).

N. Harassment

Acts of harassment include but are not limited to: threat, intimidation, coercion, assault, acts of violence, physical abuse, verbal abuse (e.g. written or graphic material, slurs, epithets, etc.), or conduct which threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person. Other acts of harassment also include: (a) actions which cause one to reasonably believe they are endangered; (b) reporting an offense or incident knowing the offense or incident did not occur or knowing the information relating to the matter is false; (c) intentionally initiating or circulating a report of a bombing, fire or other emergency knowing that the report is false; (d) acting to prevent or interrupt the use of any building or other facility or the activities of the college. Students convicted of criminal offenses while enrolled at the college will be subject to disciplinary sanctions.

A decision to implement involuntary withdrawal may be implemented by the Dean of Students (or Director of Residence Life for involuntary withdrawal from a residential facility). If a student is withdrawn under the provisions of this paragraph, the student will be entitled to request an appeal of the decision by giving written notice of an appeal request to the Vice President for Student Affairs. Upon receipt of notice of appeal, the Vice President will follow the criteria as outlined in the appeal process. The college reserves the right to initiate behavioral agreements when deemed appropriate. Violations of such agreements will result in stated consequences.

Disciplinary Procedures

Any member of the college community may accuse a student for misconduct. College disciplinary proceedings are separate from civil litigation or criminal arrest and prosecution and will be carried out prior to, simultaneously with, or following civil or criminal proceedings. Rulings associated with the college code of conduct are not linked to decisions related to legal matters and may differ in outcome.

Upon receipt of information, the Division of Student Affairs will conduct a preliminary review to determine whether further action is needed. A student accused of misconduct will be notified of the alleged rule violation, the conduct upon which the accusation is based, and which judicial board will be handling the case (see section labeled Judicial Board Definition and Composition). If deemed appropriate, the Dean of Students or his/her designee will proceed with a formal judicial charge of a violation of the code of conduct.

The charge letter from the Dean of Students shall constitute notice of the charges. The student will be asked to sign a charge sheet indicating that the student understands the charges and understands that they will be afforded a hearing unless they choose to admit responsibility for the misconduct as charged, waive a hearing, and submit to the Dean's Court for sanctions as specified subsequently in this procedure statement.

A student may have up to twenty-four hours to select either the Campus Judicial Board process or the Dean's Court process. If the student selects the judicial board process, the Dean of Students will appoint a campus judicial board to hear the case. If the student chooses the Dean's Court process, the student must admit responsibility for the charged misconduct, waive any hearing and any appeal, and submit to the sanctions determined by the Dean of Students. This choice, and the student's understanding of the ramifications of the choice, will be evidenced in writing and signed by the student. If a student fails to select between the judicial board process and Dean’s Court, the judicial board process will be followed. If a student fails to appear at a judicial hearing, the judicial board will proceed in the student’s absence.

Students are responsible for responding to the Dean of Students or his/her designee related to judicial matters within the time frame specified. The Dean of Students may request the response in person or in writing. If no response is provided, the Dean of Students will follow the process as outlined related to the campus judicial board, therefore the student will lose his/her privilege to select between dean’s court and the judicial board process. Responses related to judicial matters must be in the student’s own words. Statements from outside sources will not be accepted in lieu of the student’s statement in his/her own words.

The student may not be represented by another in any phase of the college’s disciplinary process, nor may the student invite any other person to participate in the processes except as a scheduled witness. Students may give written permission for the appropriate college official to discuss judicial matters with parents or legal guardians. Students may bring witnesses for the sole purpose of providing pertinent information. Witnesses attend the judicial hearing for the singular purpose of providing testimony and are not party to the hearing as a whole. The student will be heard in his/her own defense, and allowed to offer material evidence. If disciplinary action is taken, sanctions will be administered on the basis of all the circumstances deemed relevant to the alleged violation including, but not limited to, the regulations, evidence, precedents, and past conduct of the student.

In the event that another student has been injured or violated in some way as a result of a violation of college policy, the student victim will be given an opportunity to speak at the initial judicial board hearing.

The disciplinary process will be conducted privately. Decisions and sanctions will be disclosed to the charged student and otherwise only as permitted by law. Officers, employees, faculty members, and students of the college hold discipline matters in confidence and reveal them to other members of the college community only on a need-to-know basis. The college may record the evidentiary portions of Campus Judicial Board proceedings. Tapes are the property of Carson-Newman College, include only hearing testimony, and are available to the Vice President for Student Affairs or his/her designee to be used in the event of an appeal.

A student accused of violating the college's expectations may choose to withdraw from the college. In such event, the disciplinary process will end, although the college may continue its investigation, create and maintain a confidential evidentiary file. If the student applies for readmission, the college may consider the previous conduct violation charges and the evidence the college has gathered concerning that charge, and, if the college deems it appropriate, the college may require medical, mental, or other evidence which the college deems relevant to the readmission decision.

Disciplinary records from judicial boards and dean's court procedures are confidential records. The records are kept in a locked area within Student Affairs with direct access by the Vice President for Student Affairs and the Dean of Students. Others have access on a need-to-know basis, including but not limited to, the Director of Safety and Security, the Director of Residence Life, the Director of Counseling, etc. as determined by the Dean of Students or Vice President for Student Affairs.

Judicial Board Definition and Composition

A. General Discipline

This process addresses minor conduct violations within the Student Affairs division. Residence Life Professional Staff and/or the Director of Residence Life may hear violations regarding residence hall behavior of this kind (e.g. violations of the Guide to Residential living such as noise violations, visitation violations, property violations) and may impose sanctions. The Director of the MSAC and Recreational Services may hear cases related to un-sportsmanlike behavior in intramurals and may impose sanctions related to participation in intramural activities. The Director of Student Activities may hear violations regarding club, group or organization misconduct and may issue sanctions. General discipline is dispensed by Student Affairs professionals through an informal hearing process. The administrator will meet with the accused student who will be notified of misconduct complaints and/or charges, and the administrator will issue a sanction not to exceed disciplinary probation.

H. Disciplinary Probation
Official warning that a student has been found responsible for violating Carson-Newman College policy, and future violations may result in more severe sanctions (which may include suspension or expulsion). The student will not be in “good disciplinary standing” with the college for a designated period of time, and may face specific restrictions on his or her behavior and/or privileges.

I. Community Restitution Hours
Designated work hours assigned to be completed at a location selected by the college. Substitution of community restitution hours for a fine is at the discretion of the Dean of Students.

J. Report/Reprimand
Oral or written warning that further misconduct may result in a more severe sanction.

K. Restriction
Loss of privileges to participate in campus activities or benefits (i.e., intramurals, residence hall visitation, parking, other).

L. Administrative Suspension of Privileges
A designated college administrator may suspend the privileges of a student prior to the beginning of an administrative process. A student will receive written notification of any suspension of privileges, and will be afforded the opportunity to be heard by a designated hearing board in an expedient fashion. Examples of suspension of privileges include, but are not limited to, loss of parking privileges, eviction from housing, and restriction from participating in intramural activities.

M. Restitution
Requirement to reimburse or otherwise compensate another for damage or loss of property resulting from a student’s misconduct.

N. Alcohol Education Program
Requirement to attend an alcohol and drug education program sponsored by counseling services. A minimal fee may be charged for a workbook.
O. Fines/Administrative Fees
A fine requires a student to pay a sum of money. An administrative fee is assessed to assist with costs associated with an educational workshop or program. Fines may be imposed separately or in addition to any other sanction(s). Substitution of a fine for community restitution hours is at the discretion of the Dean of Students.

P. Other Sanctions
Other sanctions may be imposed instead of or in addition to those specified. Examples may include but are not limited to: loss of membership/office in an organization, service or research projects, counseling through the college's counseling center (free of charge), and evaluation and/or approved treatment program, at the student's expense. Treatment may also be a condition of readmission to or remaining at the college.

NOTE: A student may be more severely penalized for violations of student regulations and expectations when it is determined that the violation was motivated in part by prejudice toward the victim or hatred of the victim. Example include but may not be limited to different race, sex, religion, national or ethnic origin, age, disability, veteran's status.

Disciplinary Appeals
It is understood that an appeal is not considered to be a second hearing of a case but, if deemed appropriate, an opportunity to review a case in light of grounds for appeal. Students have the right to request an appeal of a decision or sanction that is imposed by a Campus Judicial Board, but not by a Dean's Court ruling. Appeals shall be made to and are considered by the Vice President for Student Affairs or her/his designee, with any assistance he/she may request from others (including the selection of an appeal board to recommend action to the Vice President for Student Affairs at her/his discretion). Appeals shall be in writing and submitted by the student within 48 hours of notification to the student of the application of sanctions. The appeal must state whether the student is appealing the decision, the sanction, or both. The correspondence must also state the grounds for which the appeal would be heard: (1) evidence was not available at the time of the college code of conduct decision, but now is available and is directly related to the case, (2) the college did not follow proper procedure, or (3) the sanction is extreme in relation to the violation.
The appeal process will consist of reviewing initial discipline reports, gathered evidence, and board proceedings. Appeals are not automatic. The administrator may choose one of the following: uphold the findings and sanctions levied by the judicial board; modify the findings and/or modify the sanctions; direct the judicial board to perform certain specified tasks (i.e. retry the case) and to report back to the administrator; or take jurisdiction of the matter and conduct further investigation and/or hold an additional hearing or hearings and reach a decision and declare sanctions.

In the case of a granted appeal, if there is a student who has been injured or violated as a result of a violation of college policy and has testimony relevant to the information being considered, the student may be given the opportunity to be heard during the appeal process.

There is no appeal for a Dean’s Court ruling and application of sanctions. The Dean’s Court is available only to those who have admitted responsibility for the misconduct as charged and agreed to accept that court’s sanctions.

ADMINISTRATIVE POLICIES & PROCEDURES

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY
Academic dishonesty may include but is not limited to the following: giving or receiving aid on tests; plagiarizing papers, assignments, or book reviews; removing and/or copying test questions from office files. Incidents of suspected dishonesty will be addressed by the course instructor/professor with the department chair and/or the respective Academic School’s Dean. After hearing the student and considering all the evidence, sanctions will be assessed if the student is deemed to have acted inappropriately in regards to academic dishonesty. Academic dishonesty may result in sanctions including but not limited to an F and loss of credit for the course and, upon a recurrence or gross dishonesty, expulsion from the college. Any finding of academic dishonesty, and the sanction applied or recommended, shall be reported to the Provost who shall assess any sanction more severe than the loss of credit for the course. A student may appeal a finding and/or a sanction assessed to the Provost. Otherwise, no appeal shall be allowed. For updates and questions related to this area, please contact the Provost’s office.
ACADEMIC PROGRAMS
Information pertaining to academic matters, including withdrawal and readmission, may be found in the current Carson-Newman College Catalog.

ADVERTISING
Individuals or groups who wish to advertise on campus must receive approval from the Director of Student Activities, who will designate appropriate areas for advertisement. Separate policies governing advertising in the residence halls are listed in the Guide to Residential Living. Specifics related to student organizations are listed in the Student Activities Guide. Persons not coordinating with the Director of Student Activities will be asked to terminate the process immediately. Students may be subject to disciplinary action.

ALCOHOL AND DRUGS

Standard of Conduct
Carson-Newman College is an alcohol and drug-free community. A violation of alcohol or drug laws while enrolled at the college will subject the student to disciplinary action by the college. In addition, the college prohibits the possession, use, distribution or manufacture of alcohol or of illicit drugs and drug paraphernalia, and the misuse or abuse of prescription or over-the-counter drugs, on its property or as a part of any of its activities, including but not limited to off-campus activities sponsored by the college or engaged in by any recognized student organization. Any student who violates the college’s policy is subject to the college’s disciplinary sanctions and to applicable criminal penalties.

The prohibition against the use, possession or distribution of alcohol and illegal drugs also includes possession or distribution of empty alcohol containers and/or drug paraphernalia. Whether a student has violated the alcohol or illegal drug policy may be determined by evidence such as the odor of alcohol or drugs or questionable conduct suggesting that the student is under the influence of such substances. The college reserves the right to report any illegal act occurring on campus or at any college sponsored activity to the appropriate authorities for criminal prosecution.

Criminal Sanctions
Jefferson City ordinances prohibit the following acts and provide for these penalties:
Possessing beer or liquor in an open container in a public place not licensed for the consumption of alcohol is subject to a fine of $10.00, and city court costs of $78.55. All other offenses related to alcohol or illegal drugs, (including underage consumption), are now mandated to the state’s county general sessions courts or, if warranted, to a criminal court. The Jefferson County General Sessions Court is located in Dandridge, TN, the county seat.

Federal and State Regulations
Tennessee statutes criminalizing drug and alcohol related activity include the following:

It is unlawful for any person under the age of twenty-one (21) to buy, possess, transport (unless in the course of employment), or consume alcoholic beverages, wine, or beer, such offense being classified a Class A misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for not more than 11 months, 29 days, or a fine of not more than $2500, or both.

It is illegal to be intoxicated in public and such behavior can result in up to 30 days in jail and/or a $50 fine.

It is illegal to consume or possess alcohol on the premises of an elementary, junior high or high school. Punishment includes up to 30 days in jail and/or a $50 fine.

Driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs is subject to eleven months and twenty-nine days, a $1,500 fine and loss of driving license for one year for the first offense; $10,000 fine and loss of license for up to ten years for third offense. Further, a court may order inpatient treatment.

If one kills a person while driving under the influence, one can be sentenced up to fifteen years in prison and fined up to $10,000, and suffer the loss of license.

Consuming or possessing in an open container any alcoholic beverage or beer while operating a motor vehicle is illegal and may result in up to 30 days in jail and/or a fine of $50.

The casual exchange of even a small amount of an illegal drug with a minor can result in up to life in prison and a $500,000 fine.

Inhaling, selling, giving or possessing glue, paint, gas aerosol or gas for an unlawful purpose is punishable by a term of up to six years and a fine of up to $3,000.
It is illegal to sell or buy an item represented to be an illicit drug or controlled substance and one may be punished by up to six years in prison and a $3,000 fine.

It is illegal to sell, deliver or possess jimsonweed seed on the premises of any elementary or secondary school, and the penalty for such an act is 11 months and 29 days in jail and/or a fine of up to $2,500.

It is illegal to possess with the intent to manufacture or deliver an anabolic steroid, and conviction will result in up to twelve years in prison and a fine of up to $50,000.

It is illegal to possess with the intent to manufacture, deliver or sell an illicit drug and one convicted of this offense may be sentenced to up to life in prison and a $500,000 fine.

Federal law prohibits the manufacture, distribution, dispensation and possession of controlled substances unless specifically permitted by statute.

Schedule I drugs have a high potential for abuse, with no accepted medical use. Schedule I drugs include, but are not limited to, heroin, marijuana, hashish, LSD and other hallucinogens.

Schedule II drugs have a high potential for abuse, but some medical use, and include opium, morphine, codeine, barbiturates, cocaine and its derivatives, amphetamines, phencyclidine (PCP) and other narcotics. Schedule III, Schedule IV and Schedule V drugs have some potential for abuse, but less than Schedule I and II drugs, with Schedule III drugs having the most potential for abuse and Schedule V the least. Schedule III, IV and V drugs include chloral hydrate (IV), certain barbiturates (III and IV), benzodiazines (IV), glutethimide (III), other depressants and narcotics (III and IV), amphetamines (III) and other stimulants (III and IV). A complete listing of controlled substances and their classifications is contained in Title 21 of the United States Code at Section 812.

Penalties for the unauthorized possession, manufacture, sale, distribution or delivery of drugs vary according to the type and quality of drug, the existence of prior offenses and whether death or serious injury results from the drug involved.

The federal penalty for the manufacture, sale or distribution of small amounts of Schedule I and II drugs, for the first offense, is from five to 40 years imprisonment and/or not more than a two million dollar fine for an individual (where death or serious injury occurs, not less than 20 years imprisonment and not more than life imprisonment); for a second offense, not less than 10 years imprisonment and not more than life and/or a fine of not less than four million dollars for an individual (where death or serious injury occurs, not less than life imprisonment). Penalties are doubled in many cases for the manufacture, sale or distribution of larger amounts of Schedule I and II drugs.
The federal penalty for the manufacture, distribution or sale of Schedule III, IV and V drugs of any quantity is:

Schedule III Drug:
not more than five years imprisonment and/or a $250,000.00 fine for a first offense; penalty is doubled for a second offense.

Schedule IV Drug:
not more than three years imprisonment and/or a $250,000.00 fine for a first offense; penalty is doubled for a second offense.

Schedule V Drug:
not more than one year imprisonment and/or a $100,000.00 fine;
penalty is doubled for a second offense.
Federal law provides separate penalties for the manufacture, sale or distribution of marijuana, hashish, or their derivatives. Penalties vary according to the quantity involved, the existence of a prior offense, and whether death or serious injury results. For a first offense involving small amounts (less than 50 kilograms of marijuana; less than 10 kilograms of hashish), the penalty includes not more than five years imprisonment and/or a $250,000.00 fine for an individual. Penalties are doubled for second offenses. For larger quantities (between 50-100 kilograms marijuana; between 10-100 kilograms hashish), the penalty includes not more than 20 years imprisonment and/or a fine of one million dollars. Penalties are increased for second offenses. Where death or serious injury results, penalties are increased to include not less than 20 years imprisonment and not more than life for a first-time offender; not less than life for a second-time offender.
In addition to the manufacture, distribution or sale of controlled substances, federal law prohibits unauthorized possession of controlled substances. Penalties for simple possession include up to one year imprisonment and/or at least a $1,000.00 fine (but less than $10,000.00) for a first offense; up to two years imprisonment and/or at least a $2,500.00 fine (but less than $250,000.00) for a second offense; up to three years imprisonment and/or at least a $5,000.00 fine (but less than $250,000.00) for subsequent offenses. Special sentencing provisions apply to the possession of crack cocaine.
Special federal penalties apply to the sale or distribution of controlled substances to persons under age 21 or within 1,000 feet of school, college or university property.

Health Risks
The following are summaries of the major health risks of and common symptoms associated with alcohol and other drug use and abuse. This is not a complete listing but an overview. Each individual will experience the effects of alcohol and other drugs in a slightly different way given his or her tolerance, body size, family history, gender, and other physical and psychological factors. Abuse of alcohol and other drugs can lead to chemical dependency and can be harmful during pregnancy.

Alcohol
Alcohol in moderate amounts causes dizziness, dulling of the senses, impairment of coordination, reflexes, memory and judgment. Increased amounts of alcohol produce staggering, slurred speech, double vision, mood changes and, possibly, unconsciousness. Larger amounts result in death. Alcohol causes damage to the liver, heart and pancreas. It also may lead to malnutrition, stomach irritation, lowered resistance to disease and irreversible brain or nervous system damage. Symptoms: Glazed eyes, obvious odor, pale and dry skin, broken blood vessels in facial area, slowed motor coordination and enlarged stomach.

Marijuana
Marijuana use leads to a substantial increase in heart rate. It impairs or reduces short-term memory and comprehension, and motivation and cognition are altered. With extended use it can produce paranoia and psychosis. Smoking marijuana damages the lungs and pulmonary system. Marijuana contains more cancer causing agents than tobacco. It also lowers male sex hormones, suppresses ovulation, and causes changes in the menstrual cycle and possibly causes birth defects. Symptoms: Someone who uses marijuana may laugh inappropriately and have bloodshot eyes, dry mouth and throat, a tell-tale odor of the drug, a poor sense of timing and increased appetite.

Cocaine and Crack
Cocaine and its derivative crack produce dilated pupils and elevated blood pressure, heart rate, respiratory rate and body temperature. They may also cause insomnia, loss of appetite, tactile hallucinations, paranoia, seizure and death. Symptoms: Someone using cocaine may experience muscle twitching, panic reactions, anxiety, numbness in hands and feet, loss of weight, a period of hyperactivity followed by a depression, a running or bleeding nose and sustained depression.

Barbiturates
In small doses, barbiturates produce calmness, relaxed muscles and lowered anxiety. Larger doses cause slurred speech, staggering gait and altered perception. Very large doses taken in combination with other central nervous system depressants (e.g., alcohol) cause respiratory depression, coma and sometimes death. Symptoms: A person who uses barbiturates may have poor muscle control, appear drowsy or drunk, become confused, irritable, inattentive or have slowed reactions.

Amphetamines
Amphetamine use causes increased heart and respiratory rates, elevated blood pressure, and dilated pupils. Larger doses cause rapid or irregular heartbeat, tremors and physical collapse. An amphetamine injection creates a sudden increase in blood pressure that can result in stroke, high fever and heart failure. Symptoms: An individual using amphetamines might begin to lose weight, have periods of excessive sweating, and appear restless, anxious, moody and unable to focus.
Extended use may produce psychosis, including hallucinations, delusions and paranoia.

Hallucinogens (including PCP, LSD, Mescaline, Peyote, Psilocybin) PCP, or angel dust, interrupts the part of the brain that controls the intellect and impulsive behavior. PCP blocks pain receptors. Violent episodes, including self-inflicted injuries, are not uncommon. Chronic users report memory loss and speech difficulty. Very large doses produce convulsions, coma, heart and lung failure, or ruptured blood vessels in the brain. LSD, mescaline, peyote, etc. cause dilated pupils, elevated body temperature, increased heart rate and blood pressure, and tremors. Symptoms: Someone using PCP might appear moody, aggressive or violent. Such an individual may become paranoid and experience hallucinations and have time and body movements slowed.
LSD users may experience loss of appetite, sleeplessness, confusion, anxiety and panic. Flashbacks may also occur.

Narcotics (including Heroin, Codeine, Morphine, Opium, Percodan) Because these narcotics are generally injected, the use of contaminated needles may result in AIDS and hepatitis. Symptoms of overdose include shallow breathing, clammy skin and convulsions. An overdose may result in a coma or even death. Symptoms: Some signs of narcotic use are euphoria, drowsiness, constricted pupils and nausea. Other symptoms include itchy skin, needle or "track" marks on the arms and legs, nodding, loss of sex drive and appetite. When withdrawing from the drug, sweating, cramps and nausea occur.

Counseling

Carson-Newman College is concerned about a student who has a problem with substance abuse. Assistance is available through campus and community resources. Please do not hesitate to reach out for support by contacting the people and/or agencies listed below.

Disciplinary Sanctions

Carson-Newman College will impose sanctions against students who are determined to have violated the College’s rules regarding alcohol and drugs. Sanctions range from required counseling and abuse education classes, monetary fines, community service hours, disciplinary probation to, in appropriate cases, suspension from the College. In addition, residence hall students may be removed from the housing system. The College may also refer cases to law enforcement authorities.

Notification

The College encourages students to talk to their parents, ministers, and counselors about problems they encounter with alcohol and drugs. The College may disclose to the parents or legal guardians of a student information regarding the student’s violation of any law or College rule regarding alcohol and controlled substances if the student is under the age of 21 and the College has determined that the student has violated the College’s rules. The College may notify the parents or guardians of students under the age of 21 who have been transported or admitted to a medical facility and treated because of alcohol or drug use, have caused harm to themselves or others, or have caused vandalism or property damage while under the influence of alcohol or drugs. Regardless of the age of a student, the College may contact parents or guardians in connection with an emergency to protect the health or safety of the student or of another.

Review

The College will review its alcohol and other drugs programs annually for effectiveness and consistency of application and, where necessary, make appropriate changes.
ARMY ROTC (Extracurricular Activities)
ROTC students may participate in the Color Guard, Ranger Club, Officers Christian Fellowship, annual Military Ball and many social functions sponsored by cadets and cadre. Each year the Ranger Club attends a regional, multistate intercollegiate competition of physical stamina, leadership ability and teamwork.

ATHLETIC DRUG AND ALCOHOL TESTING
The athletic department utilizes a drug-testing program to detect alcohol or illegal drug use among student athletes. Students who fail drug tests will be reported to the Office of the Dean of Students for disciplinary action.

CAMPUS CRIME REPORTING AND STATISTICS
All members of the campus community are urged to report criminal incidents, emergencies and suspicious activity to the Department of Safety and Security at (865) 471-3559. The department maintains a daily crime log in its office that is open to the general public to view upon request. The Eagle Eye Security Guide, published annually by the department, depicts all crimes occurring on the campus or adjacent to the campus (as required by the Campus Safety Act and the Department of Education) for the past three years. The guide may be found on the C-N website (www.cn.edu), under Student Affairs and within the subsection Safety and Security. Please note that the DOE and the TBI crime reporting requirements differ from one another as defined within the Guide.

CAMPUS HOURS
1. Academic buildings: All academic buildings will be closed between the hours of 11:00 p.m. and 7:30 a.m. Written permission from an appropriate faculty member along with proper identification must be presented to the security guard in order to remain in or enter an academic building between 11:00 p.m. and 7:30 a.m. Students having written permission are prohibited from having guests with them.

COLLEGE EMBLEM AND NAME
The use of the college's seal or the sale as appropriate of an item bearing the college's name, seal or emblem may only be used by recognized organizations. Others must obtain written permission from the Vice President for Student Affairs.

COMMUNICABLE DISEASES
In an effort to promote public health as well as an understanding of communicable diseases, health services provide medical information and awareness programs for the college community. Medical referrals will be made when necessary. Education and awareness programs designed to prevent the spread of disease are provided to students through residence hall presentations, classroom discussions, and campus-wide events.

A student who has a communicable disease has an ethical responsibility to other members of the college community to report that fact to health services. All students will be allowed access to campus facilities unless such access presents a health hazard to others. If a health hazard does arise, decisions about use of facilities will be based on the nature of the illness, severity of the illness, persistence of the illness, and the potential to infect others. Each situation will be evaluated through Student Affairs on a case-by-case basis.

Communicable diseases listed as noted by the Tennessee Department of Health are the following:

COMMUNITY LIFE AND WORSHIP PROGRAM

The Community Life and Worship Program provides student-focused events which integrate faith, learning and community for students, faculty and staff. The events will consist of chapel on Tuesday mornings (Community Worship) and other specified co-curricular programming (Community Life) open to the entire campus community.

All full-time undergraduate students are required to attend at least ten (10) Community Life and Worship (CLW) events per semester for a total of seven (7) semesters. A student may bank CLW credits by attending more than 10 events in a semester, but not to exceed 20 events per year.

Attendance at CLW will be monitored through the Campus Ministries Office. To receive CLW credit for an event a student is required to bring her/his valid C-N ID card to each event attended. IDs will be scanned at the conclusion of the event. A student must remain for the duration of the event, which will vary according to the event.

The student’s attendance record for an event will be available for review on C-N Connect within 24 hours. The student is responsible for checking his/her attendance and reporting in person with C-N ID any discrepancy to the Campus Ministries Office within seven (7) days of the event. After seven days, credit will not be earned.

A printable CLW Schedule of events is located on the C-N website (www.cn.edu-click on Student Affairs, Campus Ministries, CLW Schedule) and the EagleNet Announcement Board. A monthly calendar is also available online at the college site (click on Events, see Calendar, click on CLW) and individual listings of CLW events for more details). Students should check regularly for updates to the schedule, which is subject to change periodically.

If a student fails to attend 10 CLWs each semester, the student is placed on CLW warning at the end of the semester of the deficiency. To be removed from CLW warning, a student must make up the shortage of CLWs plus the current semester’s requirement. For example, if 7 CLWs were attended in the first semester, 3 plus 10, or 13 would have to be attended during the next semester enrolled to be removed from CLW warning.
If, during the next semester of enrollment, the student fails to attend 10 CLWs plus the shortage of CLWS from the first semester, the student is placed on CLW probation. If the probationary student fails to attend a total of 30 CLWs (a minimum of 10 per semester) by the end of the third semester of deficient CLW attendance, the student will be suspended from the college.

If the student has attended 10 CLWs for each semester of full-time enrollment, CLW attendance will not be required during the student’s semester of graduation as indicated on an approved degree plan.

A transfer student is required to attend every semester while enrolled as a full-time student, except during the student’s semester of graduation. A student who has completed 128 credit hours is not required to attend CLW. A student who has previously received a baccalaureate or graduate degree or a non-traditional student (twenty-five years of age by the last day of the semester) is waived from the CLW requirement.

Under special circumstances, or in extreme cases, a student may apply for a CLW Waiver. CLW Waivers may be provided to students who cannot attend CLW events and who complete the appropriate request form. CLW waivers will normally be given to students who have conflicts resulting from curricular demands such as student teaching and nursing clinicals. Student work schedules will be considered, but do not guarantee a waiver of the CLW requirement.

Students with extenuating circumstances must apply for a CLW Waiver each semester. The Waiver Request Form is located at the C-N website (click on Student Affairs, Campus Ministries) or at the Campus Ministries Office (2214 Branner Avenue adjacent to Holt Field House). The application must be completed and returned to the Campus Ministries Office by the last day to drop classes at the beginning of the semester. The Director of Campus Ministries will render a decision regarding the waiver request and notify the student.

Special Notes: The length of CLW activities may vary. Consequently, to receive CLW credit, students must attend the entire selected event. CLW attendants will have the authority to refuse admittance to students who are tardy for the event.

• Some CLW events require tickets. CLW credit will only be given to those students who possess a ticket. Tickets are sold on first come, first serve basis.
• Due to the nature of some CLW events, there is the possibility that seating capacity will be limited or filled quickly. Therefore, some students may be turned away because of unavailable seating. Plan accordingly and arrive early.

See the Campus Ministries website (www.cn.edu –click on Student Affairs, Campus Ministries, CLW Requirements) for complete details.

DINING SERVICES ON CAMPUS

There are a variety of meal plan options offered to the campus community. Students living in residence halls must purchase a meal plan. Cafeteria meals must be eaten in Stokely Dining Hall. Arrangements can be made for illness or special events through the dining hall staff. Eagle Bucks (Declining Balance) are to be used at the Eagle's Nest Snack Bar, cafeteria, CN bakery or Java City Coffee Shop. Business hours for each location are posted.

The student’s I.D. card serves as his/her meal ticket. Everyone with a meal plan must show their I.D. card for scanning by a card reader at each meal. Since the cost of the meal ticket is based upon the actual number of meals served, not the number of outstanding meal tickets, the use of someone else's meal ticket is not allowed in order to ensure that those paying for meals are those receiving them. Students who allow another person the use of their meals or misuse of meal tickets will be reported to the Safety and Security department and the Dean of Students. Students who have used all of their declining balance have the option to pay cash. A non-meal ticket holder may pay cash. A lost I.D. card should be reported immediately to the Safety and Security office, for they will not be allowed to enter the cafeteria without an ID. Students and visitors must pay to get in to the Cafeteria; there will be no allowances for individuals just to sit in the cafeteria.

Bringing animals into food service locations is a violation of State Health Department policies. The State Health Department also requires sanitary measures in handling food dishes, silverware, glassware, trays, etc. Therefore, a student is not allowed to carry any of these items from the food service locations or bring any outside containers. Permission must be obtained from the Director of Food Services to carry any utensils or food from the dining hall. Appropriate dress is required in the food service locations at all times, including shoes and shirts.

Stokely Dining Hall: The dining hall, located in Stokely Memorial Hall, provides food service in a cheerful, pleasant atmosphere with a food court layout and a wide variety of menu items and options. Entrance is made by way of the front foyer and serving hours are arranged to provide the best service for the majority of students and are subject to change. Please note that the dining hall must close as scheduled for cleaning of the dining areas and preparation of the next meal. Students wishing to post signs at the dining hall must go through the Director of Student Activities. Wooden kiosks are placed in the lobby for students to post general information. Information must be consistent with the college’s advertising policy.

Eagles Nest Snack Bar: The snack bar is located in the Maddox Student Activities Center adjacent to the post office. Various menu options are available, including beverages and snacks. Eagle Bucks or cash are accepted all day. Catering services and room reservations may be scheduled through the catering office or Director of Food Services.

DISABILITIES, STUDENTS WITH

Students with Disabilities Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 states: "No otherwise qualified individual with a disability in the United States shall, solely by reason of disability, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance."

Carson-Newman complies with the Students with Disabilities Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Students with disabilities requiring accommodations should contact the Coordinator for Students with Disabilities and Case Manager as soon as possible.

Requests for accommodations must be made in writing by the student to the Coordinator for Students with Disabilities and Case Manager. All requests must be accompanied by appropriate documentation. Documentation must include an evaluation by an appropriate, licensed professional (e.g. licensed physician, psychologist, audiologist, etc.). The evaluation must be current, typically less than three years old, and include a diagnosis of disability, evidence of impact of disability on functioning, as well as indicators of cognitive and academic levels of functioning. Students should also submit evidence of past accommodations. If the request is approved, the Coordinator for Students with Disabilities and Case Manager will notify the appropriate representatives of Carson-Newman regarding the approved accommodations. Students should not make direct application to teachers for accommodations. Ideally, students needing accommodations should make their request prior to enrollment for the semester so that the case can be reviewed and accommodations approved and arranged.

Carson-Newman seeks to reasonably accommodate students with disabilities. Concerns or dissatisfaction regarding accommodations should be directed to the Coordinator for Students with Disabilities and Case Manager. Students who believe they have experienced discrimination related to a disability should contact the Coordinator for Students with Disabilities and Case Manager. The decisions of the Coordinator for Students with Disabilities and Case Manager may be appealed to the Students with Disabilities Committee. The decisions of the Students with Disabilities Committee may be appealed to the provost. For more information, please contact the Coordinator for Students with Disabilities and Case Manager at (865) 471-3268.

DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT

Carson-Newman College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex (including pregnancy), age, disability, military service, or genetic information. Those who have a complaint regarding discrimination should contact the Discrimination and Harassment Officer, who will conduct an investigation in accordance with the complaint and grievance procedures. The Discrimination and Harassment Officer for Carson-Newman College is the Director of Human Resources:

Discrimination and Harassment Officer
Mr. Jimmy Wyatt
1646 Russell Avenue
Fite Administration Building, Room 204
Jefferson City, TN 37760
Office Telephone: (865) 471-3212

Discriminatory Harassment Policy

Harassing another person because of his or her race, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, or military service is not tolerated. Harassment can include verbal or physical conduct that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual and: (1) has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment; (2) has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual’s academic or job performance; or (3) otherwise adversely affects an individual’s educational or employment opportunities. Such harassment is contrary to the Christian standards of conduct expected of all members of the College community including: students, staff and faculty.
Acts of harassment include but are not limited to: threat, intimidation, coercion, assault, acts of violence, physical abuse, verbal abuse (e.g., written or graphic material, slurs, epithets, etc.), or conduct which threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person. Other acts of harassment also include: (a) actions which cause one to reasonably believe they are endangered; (b) reporting an offense or incident knowing the offense or incident did not occur or knowing the information relating to the matter is false; (c) intentionally initiating or circulating a report of a bombing, fire or other emergency knowing that the report is false; (d) acting to prevent or interrupt the use of any building or other facility or the activities of the college.

Any person who engages in harassment will be subject to disciplinary action ranging from a warning to discharge or expulsion, if appropriate. Those who have a complaint regarding harassment should contact the Discrimination and Harassment Officer, who will conduct an investigation in accordance with the complaint and grievance procedures.

Sexual Harassment Policy
Students, faculty, and staff have the right to be free from sexual harassment. Students are prohibited from engaging in sexually harassing conduct towards any other person. Sexual harassment directed towards students can include physical conduct or verbal innuendo of a sexual nature, imposed on the basis of sex by an employee or agent of the college, when (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's status in a course, program or activity; (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for academic decisions affecting such individual, including, but not limited to, grades or academic progress; or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's academic performance or of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment.

Persons who have been sexually harassed should immediately report the incident to the Discrimination and Harassment Officer, the institutional designated sexual harassment officer. The College encourages but does not require a person who has been sexually harassed to inform the harasser that his or her conduct is unwelcome and offensive immediately upon its occurrence. Each instance of sexual harassment reported to the college will be investigated. Failing to report sexual harassment may only perpetuate unacceptable conduct.

Any person who engages in sexual harassment will be subject to disciplinary action ranging from a warning to discharge or expulsion, if appropriate. Those who have a complaint regarding sexual harassment should contact the Discrimination and Harassment Officer, the institutional designated sexual harassment officer, who will conduct an investigation in accordance with the complaint and grievance procedures.

Complaint and Grievance Procedures

(Covers procedures related to harassment, and sexual harassment. For disability-related harassment grievance procedures, refer to the section of this handbook entitled DISABILITIES, STUDENTS WITH)

If you suspect that you have been harassed or discriminated against (non-disability), you may register your complaint with the Discrimination and Harassment Officer. Upon receipt of a complaint, which alleges a violation of these policies, the Discrimination and Harassment Officer shall conduct a preliminary investigation. If warranted, the Discrimination and Harassment Officer may appoint a complaint and grievance board to continue the investigation of the charge(s). An investigation may include an interview with the person filing the complaint, the person(s) accused of violating the policies and any person designated by either of the principal parties as witnesses to the incident in question. The complaint and grievance board will provide recommendations to the Discrimination and Harassment Officer for appropriate action. At the Discrimination and Harassment Officer’s discretion, he/she may accept the recommendations of the complaint and grievance board. The Discrimination and Harassment Officer may direct further investigation if needed. In both preliminary and complaint and grievance hearings, no party shall be allowed to be represented by legal counsel. This process shall be completed and the Discrimination and Harassment Officer shall make a final decision on the merits of the complaint within 60 days of receipt of the complaint by the college. The decision of the Discrimination and Harassment Officer shall be final. Throughout this process, information related to the complaint and the identities of the parties involved will be kept confidential and disclosed only on a need-to-know basis determined by the Discrimination and Harassment Officer. The Discrimination and Harassment Officer may impose the administrative suspension of privileges sanction as referenced under disciplinary sanctions.
FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT

Carson-Newman College provides for the confidentiality of student records in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, as amended. This act provides for the right of access by a student to his/her files and records with certain limited exceptions and prohibits the disclosure of information without the student’s written approval, with certain limited exceptions, other than for disclosure of directory information.

Directory information includes student name, address, telephone numbers, date and place of birth, dates of attendance, enrollment status (full-time or part-time), major field of study, degree and awards, anticipated date of graduation, the most recent previous educational institution attended, participation in school activities and sports, and email-addresses. Students wishing to withhold directory information may do so by notifying the Registrar in writing, specifying the type of directory information to be withheld. Such notification must be received during the first week of the student’s enrollment each academic year.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These rights include:

1. The right to inspect and review the student’s education records within 45 days of the day the College receives a request for access.

A student should submit to the registrar, dean, chair of the academic department, or other appropriate official, a written request that identifies the record(s) the student wishes to inspect. The college official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the College official to whom the request was submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.

2. The right to request the amendment of the student’s education records that the student believes to be inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student’s privacy rights under FERPA. A student who wishes to ask the College to amend a record should write the College official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record the student wants changed, and specify why it should be changed.

If the College decides not to amend the record as requested, the college will notify the student in writing of the decision and the student’s right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.

(3) The right to provide written consent before the College discloses personally identifiable information from the student’s education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent.

The College may disclose education records without a student’s prior written consent under the FERPA exception for disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the College in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health staff); a person or company with whom the College has contracted as its agent to provide a service instead of using College employees or officials (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks.

A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibilities for the College. Upon request, the College may disclose education records without consent to officials of another school in which a student seeks or intends to enroll.

(4) The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the College to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the office that administers FERPA is:

Family Policy Compliance Office
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW
Washington, DC  20202-5901

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act provides that educational records of a student who is a dependent of his/her parents(s) for Internal Revenue purposes may be disclosed to the parents(s) without first receiving the student’s consent provided documentation showing the student to be a dependent under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code is presented by the parent(s). Students may also authorize the release of otherwise confidential information, i.e., grades, academic progress, class attendance, financial data, and disciplinary actions to parents or others by signing a consent to disclosure form available in the Office of the Registrar.

The following is a partial list of records maintained in college offices and the official responsible for each:

Academic records and transcripts: Registrar
Student Judicial Records: Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students
Student Co-curricular and Extracurricular Participation: Vice President for Student Affairs
Placement Files: (compiled by the student) Academic Support Center

GRADE APPEAL POLICY
If a student disagrees with a grade received, he or she may request a review of the coursework upon which the grade was assigned. If an appeal is made, it must be in writing within one calendar year of the date the grade was assigned and begins with a conference with the instructor of the course. If not resolved in this conference, the appeal moves to the department chair and then the school dean. If the grade appeal has not been resolved at these levels, it moves to the provost for final review. The provost may refer a grade appeal to the Academic Standards Committee for their study and recommendation.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE
All students wishing to file a formal non-academic, non-discrimination, non-harassment-related grievance must do so, in writing, to the Vice President for Student Affairs. Grievances should be filed as quickly as possible following the alleged incident and the burden of proof will be on the student to prove the allegations. The grievance may be denied because of a lack of sufficient evidence. A simple allegation or unsubstantiated assertion is an insufficient basis for lodging a formal grievance.

HARASSMENT (See Discrimination and Harassment)
HAZING

Hazing is both illegal and a violation of the College code of conduct. The legal definition of hazing includes "any intentional or reckless act in Tennessee on or off the property of the College, by one student acting alone or with others which is directed against any other student, that endangers the mental or physical health or safety of that student, or which induces or coerces a student to endanger such student's mental or physical health or safety." Under the law, "Hazing does not include customary athletic events or similar contests or competitions, and is limited to those actions taken and situations created in connection with initiation into or affiliation with any organization." The College prohibits any form of hazing.

The College's prohibition of hazing is broader than the law's prohibition. The College's policy grows out of the College's belief in the dignity and worth of every individual. Thus, at Carson-Newman, students are prohibited, in any context and anywhere, from engaging in any act, whether the act be physical, mental, emotional or psychological, which subjects another, voluntarily or involuntarily, to anything which may abuse, mistreat, degrade, humiliate, harm, or intimidate.

Individual students and student organizations guilty of hazing will be disciplined individually and as an organization. Recognition or registration by the college of an organization, which engages in, allows, or condones hazing may be withdrawn or denied.

IDENTIFICATION CARD (I.D.)

The student identification card is processed at the time of initial enrollment. Each student is required to obtain an I.D. card.

1. The I.D. card is your official college identification and must be carried at all times. Lost cards should be reported immediately to the Safety and Security office during business hours by calling 865-471-3559. After business hours, please contact Safety and Security at 865-548-9067. In the event an I.D. card is lost or misplaced, a new I.D. card may be obtained for a fee through the Safety and Security office located in the brick house behind Stokely Memorial Cafeteria.

2. If you have a damaged I.D. card that will not scan easily, you may bring the damaged card to the Safety and Security office and it will be replaced free of charge.
3. Lending your I.D. card to anyone, borrowing someone else’s I.D. card, or failure to present it when requested by a college official is considered a violation of the college code of conduct and subjects the holder to disciplinary action.

4. I.D. cards become void upon termination or interruption of enrollment.

5. I.D. cards must be presented when taking meals in the cafeteria, checking out library materials, attending events sponsored by student activities, and entering the MSAC recreation areas. They are also used by residential students to gain access to their residence facility.

ILLNESS NOTIFICATION POLICY
If you are admitted to a hospital or are at home for an extended time due to illness or injury, please notify the Health Services (3350) in order that the administration and your professors can be notified. Written excuses are not given for missing classes. If the personnel at Health Services examine you, e-mail notices of the date and time of visit can be sent to your professors upon your written request.

IMMUNIZATIONS
The State of Tennessee requires: (1) that all full-time college students born after 1957 provide proof of immunity to measles, mumps, and rubella; (2) that all students provide proof of immunity to hepatitis B or a signed waiver; (3) that all students living in campus housing provide proof of immunity to bacterial meningitis or a signed waiver. In addition, (4) the college requires proof of screening for tuberculosis. A Carson-Newman College Immunization Record form is provided in the application packet. The completed form should be returned to the health service prior to final registration.

The college is required to provide information about Hepatitis B Disease. It is a serious disease of the liver and one of the most dangerous forms of hepatitis. The hepatitis b virus (HBV) can permanently damage the liver and prevent it from carrying out many of the functions necessary for life. More than 50% of all adolescents and adults with hepatitis b have no symptoms and more than 30% have no idea how they contracted the disease and have no known risk factors. It is contracted through infected blood and body fluids but is largely preventable through vaccination. Information about the disease is included in the application packet and at health services in the Kathleen Manley building. Immunization is not available at the health service office, but can be obtained through your local health department.

The college is required to provide information about Bacterial Meningitis. It is a serious disease, which can lead to death within only a few hours of onset. One in 10 cases is fatal and one in 7 survivors of the disease are left with severe disability (loss of limb, mental retardation, paralysis, deafness, seizure). Meningococcal disease is an infection of the spinal cord fluid and the fluid that surrounds the brain, is contagious, but is largely preventable. Scientific evidence suggests that college students living in residence halls are at moderately increased risk of contracting the disease. Immunization against the disease can decrease the risk of contracting it. Information about the disease is included in the application packet and at health services in the Kathleen Manley building. Immunization is not available at the health service office but is available at your local health department or through your physician.

INCLIMENT WEATHER POLICY
In the event of inclement weather, students are encouraged to monitor local media outlets. The college web site (www.cn.edu) will serve as the central source of information for the college community. Weather alerts pertaining to class schedules are posted on the web site as needed. Furthermore, the college's Inclement Weather Policy can be accessed through the college's web site.

The College also has an emergency contact service called e2Campus Alert System which is designed to disseminate text messages to cell phone users when any serious emergency situation exists, to include inclement weather, pandemic events and criminal offenses. Users may sign up for the text alert by logging onto the C-N website at: http://cnweb.cn.edu and follow the simple instructions. The system allows members to maintain the service for a total of two (2) years and then they must reenroll. There is no charge for being a member, except for any text charges from your respective phone providers.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY POLICIES
Use of the computing facilities at Carson-Newman College is a privilege available to faculty, staff and students of Carson-Newman College, subject to compliance with certain principles designed to assure that all users have reasonable access to the system and that the action of any one user will not adversely affect any aspect of the work or computer usage of another. In accepting this privilege, you are expected to abide by the following rules of conduct, and compliance
A. Purpose and Use of Resources

1. Academic use is the primary purpose of the Information Technology resources, including the Internet connection, and always has priority over any other use.

2. Recreational use of the college's Internet connection (such as game playing, downloading audio/video file, etc.) may be limited or restricted during peak hours. Commercial use of the campus system is not allowed without prior written approval from Information Technology.

3. You are expected to be a responsible user of computing resources, especially printing in the computer labs. Each student is allowed 400 printed pages in labs per term in which the technology fee is paid. Additional pages may be purchased from Information Technology at .05 per page.

4. Each user is allocated network disk space for the storage of program, e-mail, data files and other documents generated by the user for college work. Additional disk space will not be allocated for storage of games or other personal software. Downloading of files from the Internet to lab computer hard drives is strictly forbidden without permission from Information Technology. Files stored on computer lab drives are subject to automatic deletion. Unauthorized installation of software on any C-N computer is prohibited.

5. Carson-Newman College does not support any type of paid Internet service (e.g. downloading music) nor does it guarantee they will work on the C-N network or through the C-N Internet connection.

6. Temporary guest accounts are subject to the Information Technology Policies.

B. Your Security and the Integrity of the Computer System

1. You have two computer accounts:

   (1) Network account

   Your network account is used to access e-mail, Blackboard and log on to computers in campus computer labs. Your password for this account will automatically expire every 180 days. You will begin receiving e-mails when you have 21 days left alerting you to change your password. You can change your password at any time by logging on to a lab computer, pressing Ctrl-Alt-Del and selecting “Change Password”. If you are using a Macintosh or a personally-owned computer you can change your password by:

1. Browsing to “http://www.cn.edu”
2. In the “Quick Links” Drop down Choose “CN-Email”
3. Log into C-N's web based e-mail system
4. Click the “Options” button
5. Click “Change Password” from the list of the options
6. Enter your current password in the “Old Password” field
7. Enter your new password in the next two fields and click “Save”

(2) C-N Connect account

C-N Connect is the way students access grades, financial assistance information, view and pay account balances, see your student schedule, get unofficial transcripts, see attendance information, see program evaluation and your student profile. The first time you log on to this account, you will be prompted to change your password. To access this account:

- Open your Internet browser to the C-N website at http://www.cn.edu
- Select the “Current Students” button
- Select the “C-N Connect” icon
- Select the “Log In” tab in the upper right corner

2. Your computer accounts are solely for your own use. Activity on your accounts is your responsibility. Because every user has an individual computer account on the system, there is no reason to use another person’s account. You should not share your user name or password with anyone, nor attempt to acquire or use another user’s account or password. Be sure to always log off of the Carson-Newman network after finishing a computing session in order to protect your account from being accessed by others.
3. Change your system password regularly to protect your data. Anyone who can figure out your password could delete your files, read your documents or send e-mail that appears to have come from you. Passwords must be at least 6 letters and/or numbers in length.

4. If Information Technology personnel suspect that a user account is being used by someone other than the user to whom it was assigned, access to the account may be revoked without warning. Any user account logged on to more than one computer concurrently may be disabled until security of that account can be verified. Student computer accounts are retained for as long as the student is continuously enrolled at C-N. E-mail accounts of graduates are retained as a courtesy until the next graduation (either May or Dec). If you do not have an external e-mail account, it is recommended you obtain one by your senior year to use on your résumé, employment applications, etc.

5. Carson-Newman College uses sophisticated security equipment to help protect the campus network, including college computers and student computers connected to the network. The purpose of this equipment is to allow approved data such as web browsing and e-mail to pass to/from the Internet while blocking unauthorized entry to the network. Each connection that is opened for web browsing, e-mail, etc., is a potential security hazard. Therefore, connections for non-essential services such as game playing will not be opened. The college is not responsible for any failure of the security equipment which allows unauthorized access to your computer or files stored on the campus system.

6. Students with personal computers connected to the C-N network are required to install an updated anti-virus program. Additionally, Windows updates must be installed. Student computers that don’t have an updated anti-virus software and Windows updates may not be able to access the Internet. A personal firewall is strongly recommended. Detailed instructions on taking these steps are available in the Information Technology section of the college’s web page: http://www.cn.edu or directly at http://cnweb.cn.edu/it

When connecting to the C-N network, the student does so at his or her own risk and accepts complete responsibility for his or her own computer. Carson-Newman takes no responsibility for and is void of liability from computers that are infected with viruses or spyware while connected to the C-N network. Each student is responsible for all activity that takes place on his or her personal computer. Students in the residence hall may not possess (through downloading or any other means) programs or files that contain or search for material that is clearly outside the scope of the college’s Christian standards. In the event Carson-Newman has reasonable evidence to believe a computer in the residence halls is disrupting the network or creating a security risk for others, that student’s connection may be revoked at the discretion of the college.

7. Using any C-N owned computing or networking device to attempt to gain illegal entry into any other computer system is prohibited.

8. If you cause damage to college-owned equipment, you will be required to pay for the replacement or repair of the equipment. You may also be subject to disciplinary sanctions. Food, drink, and tobacco products are not allowed in any C-N computer lab. Additional restrictions may apply in various computer labs across the campus.

C. Inappropriate Use; Privacy; E-mail

1. Respect for the rights of others is a crucial element of the Carson-Newman community and is central to the computer use policy. No person should use the computing facilities to harass or annoy others, or to prevent others from legitimately using the system. Sending unsolicited messages with obscene, harassing, or menacing content and sending chain letter e-mail messages or spam are examples of e-mail conduct which is not permitted. You should remember that the messages you send, whether within or outside the campus community, reflect on the college and its reputation.

2. All campus computer equipment and the data stored on campus equipment is subject to inspection and monitoring. Internet usage is both monitored and logged. You may not use or attempt to use C-N computer resources for purposes clearly outside the scope of the college’s Christian standards and mission statement, such as accessing inappropriate Internet sites. Occasionally Internet sites will be blocked that should not be. If this happens please notify Information Technology. Storage of offensive material of any kind is prohibited.
3. In sending and receiving e-mail messages, be aware that no right of privacy attaches to e-mail sent or received using the college's network or other computer resources. Messages may be monitored or reviewed by college personnel, whether because of addressing errors in the messages, investigation of suspected computer policy violations, or other reasons.

4. Altering, forging, or artificially creating any electronic information contained in a message or electronic file in order to falsify or remove identification information is prohibited.

D. Copyright and other Legal Issues

1. It is your ethical and legal responsibility to comply with all laws, including copyright laws, as you use the college computer system. Information Technology is not responsible for preventing or detecting illegally installed software or other copyright violations on your computer or the computer assigned to you.

2. Software packages installed on the network are governed by the copyright laws and agreements held by C-N. You may NOT copy software installed on the C-N network by Information Technology without written permission from Information Technology. The unauthorized installation or duplication of materials or software which is licensed or protected by copyright is prohibited.

3. Peer to Peer (P2P) file sharing (Kaaza, Kazaa, Napster, Gnutella, LimeWire, etc.) is a recreational use which consumes computer resources and is frequently in violation of copyright laws. P2P is not permitted on the C-N network. Student computers with a P2P or other file sharing software (e.g. bittorent) installed may have their Internet access blocked until they remove the software.

4. Tunneling, proxies, or other processes that attempt to circumvent standard methods of data transfer are not permitted.

5. Personal wireless access points are not allowed. Network hubs or other types of network devices not approved by Information Technology are not allowed. No type of packet capturing software is allowed. Servers (hardware or software), including, but not limited to, web, FTP, and file, are not allowed. If you wish to create your own personal web page, contact Information Technology for additional information. File and printer sharing is not permitted on personal computers without permission of Information Technology. Tampering with any college owned network device or attempts to gain access to networking equipment or any computer not belonging to you, whether college-owned or student-owned, is strictly prohibited.

E. Disciplinary Sanctions

1. Violations or suspected violations of Carson-Newman’s computer use policy or other applicable rules will be investigated by the Director of Information Technology or other individuals as appropriate. An investigation may include examining any information stored on any C-N computing system. The college reserves the right to take immediate actions deemed necessary to safeguard the security of the system and/or the accounts and files stored thereon.

2. Any person who misuses the computer system or college-owned computer equipment will normally be denied access to and use of the system and its resources. Other disciplinary sanctions which may be imposed include, among others:
   - loss of a computer account and/or network/Internet access
   - probation or suspension
   - expulsion
   - legal prosecution for the imposition of civil or criminal penalties.

The college will cooperate with civil authorities in the investigation and prosecution of crimes involving campus computer systems.

If you have any questions, problems, or need assistance, please call Information Technology at 3506.

Policies for support of student computers Services we provide:
   - Ensure that the data jacks in the residence hall rooms are working properly
• Provide instructions and any other necessary information for setting up the software on the student’s computer to properly connect to the network
• Provide a troubleshooting guide
• Provide a help desk for network related problems

These policies are subject to change without notice. Current versions can be found at http://www.cn.edu under the Information Technology section.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Academic Works: Unless Carson-Newman College provides prior notice to the contrary, the intellectual property rights to any material created by students to satisfy an academic requirement for a course in which they are enrolled belong to the student who creates the material. Faculty may require students to submit their materials to third parties as a requirement for course credit.

Student Employee Works: The intellectual property rights to all materials created at the request and direction of Carson-Newman College within the scope of a student employment position belong to the College.

Student Club, Group and Organization Works: The intellectual property rights to any materials created by students in the course and scope of their participation in co-curricular activities of student organizations chartered by Carson-Newman College belong to the College.

Research: The administration looks with favor upon faculty members engaging in research. This activity provides an opportunity for students to learn, by observation and participation, how knowledge is obtained. It helps faculty members to keep alert and fresh in their fields, contributes to the world’s store of knowledge, and attracts favorable attention to the college. In view of the fact that the investigators usually are making a contribution of their own free time toward the research, and that financially profitable inventions rarely arise from such projects, the college allows investigators to own in their own name any patents or copyrights which they may obtain as a result of their research. However, special patent agreements are usually required of grantees in connection with government and foundation grants and patent laws automatically confer certain rights on the employer whose facilities are used in making an invention.
INSURANCE
The college administration believes it prudent for every full-time student to have accident and health insurance. A student group plan is available which provides coverage 24 hours a day on or off campus. Coverage dates normally begin on August 15, December 15, and April 15. Students may enroll in the plan anytime during a term, but must pay the full premium. Each student will receive a brochure prior to the beginning of the fall semester which explains coverage and cost of the group plan. Along with this brochure, there will be a card which must be completed prior to registration. This insurance program will pay in addition to any health insurance plan which provides coverage to the student by any other company. Any exclusions are listed in the brochure. Students will be expected to enroll for the insurance unless they can show that they have coverage under another plan. International students are required to purchase medical insurance through a plan approved and provided through the College. Each student’s account is charged during the fall semester for twelve months of coverage. The cost is approximately $948 per academic year for an unmarried student.

The library also maintains a collection of current bestsellers for recreational reading. In addition to our traditional print holdings, an ever-increasing number of resources are available 24/7 electronically through the library web site (http://library.cn.edu), including access to more than 119,000 electronic books, over 42,000 periodicals, and hundreds of scholarly web sites.

The library and media services center staff, comprised of six professional librarians, six support staff, and approximately twenty student assistants, is dedicated to providing you with friendly and helpful assistance with your research needs. Books, reserve materials, and periodicals may all be checked out at the main desk. Our interlibrary loan service allows you to borrow needed materials from other libraries usually at no charge. The library instruction program and reference services give you the skills necessary to navigate the huge amount of information available to you. A computer lab consisting of approximately thirty-seven PC’s is available primarily for your research needs, but may also be used for Microsoft Office applications and email.

MISSING STUDENT NOTIFICATION POLICY
This policy outlines the official notification procedures of Carson-Newman College for missing students who reside in on-campus housing, in accordance with the requirements of the Higher Education Opportunity Act, Section 488. The purpose of this policy is to promote the safety and welfare of members of the college community through compliance with the requirements of the HEOA.

If a member of the college community has reason to believe that a student who resides in on-campus housing is missing, he or she should immediately notify Campus Safety and Security at (865) 548-9067. Upon receiving information that a student cannot be located and may be missing, Campus Security along with Student Affairs personnel will initiate an investigation which may include the following:

- Conduct a welfare check into the student’s residence hall room
- Call known contacts (parents, guardians, roommates, and friends)
- Contact employers and associates, if known
- Contact the student’s professor to ascertain the student’s recent attendance in class.
- Determine if the student’s identity card has been used to enter the residence hall, dining facility or library

If the student cannot be located after reasonable efforts, Student Affairs personnel will then contact the student’s emergency contact no later than 24 hours after the student has been determined to be missing for 24 hours. If a Confidential Contact has been listed (see below), that person will be contacted. If the missing student is under the age of 18 and is not an emancipated individual, Security personnel will notify the student’s custodial parent or legal guardian within 24 hours of the student being determined to be missing.

Campus Security will file a Missing Persons Report with the local law enforcement agency that has jurisdiction in the area within 24 hours of the student being determined to be missing.

Confidential Contact:
In addition to registering an emergency contact, students residing in on-campus housing have the option to identify confidentially an individual to be contacted by Carson-Newman College in the event the student is determined to be missing for more than 24 hours. If a student has identified such an individual, Carson-Newman College will notify that individual no later than 24 hours after the student is determined to be missing. Students who wish to identify a confidential contact can do so through the Safety and Security office. A student’s confidential contact information will be accessible only by authorized campus officials and law enforcement as appropriate.

PARKING REGULATIONS
The Department of Safety and Security is responsible for the establishment and enforcement of parking regulations on campus as well as for the parking lots the College uses that are owned by First Baptist Church and First Presbyterian Church, and as established by contractual consent. Students, faculty and staff members who bring a vehicle to the campus, including motorcycles, must obtain a campus-parking hangtag within three (3) days of arriving on campus. Hangtags must be placed on rearview mirrors or in plain sight when vehicles are parked on campus or in the two church lots. Owners of motorcycles must present a hangtag when asked by campus security officers or their designated assistants. Hangtags may be purchased in the Safety and Security office. Hangtags are not transferable to fellow students, nor are they to be sold to other students, and anyone who engages in such activity will be subject to disciplinary action. Students and staff members must register each vehicle they will be bringing to campus and failure to do so may result in a traffic citation, fine, and/or disciplinary action. The Department of Safety and Security is located at 2209 Branner Ave., directly behind the Stokely Building (college cafeteria and the Department of Education.)

Students and staff are responsible for their vehicles on campus regardless of who is driving them, and for all parking and traffic violations and/or accidents that may occur. Drivers who are using borrowed vehicles on campus may also be held liable for incidents related to traffic offenses, accidents, and parking violations. All parking lots on campus have painted colored squares and are reserved as follows:
• Blue Spaces are for students who reside on campus.
• White Spaces are for commuter students.

Disability/Handicapped Parking Zone (State mandated) $100.00
Students with Disabilities
Students and staff who need temporary disability hangtags may go to the safety and security office with a physician’s authorization form. Disability hangtags must be returned to the safety and security office when they are no longer needed. They are not valid off campus. Students and staff who need permanent disability hangtags need to go through their respective physicians, and their local state and county agencies for appropriate assistance. Failure to return the disability college-parking hangtag will result in a fine of $10.00. Please note that parking momentarily in a handicapped space or any other unauthorized space on campus may result in a parking ticket being issued regardless of the excuse.

POLL/SURVEYS
Non-academic student surveys or opinion polls are required to be coordinated through Student Affairs. Persons not coordinating with Student Affairs will be asked to terminate the process immediately. Students may be subject to disciplinary action.

POST OFFICE
The post office is open Monday through Friday from 10:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. During May term and summer school, the post office is open Monday through Friday from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. The post office will be open on Federal holidays, unless it is also a school holiday, then it will be closed. UPS, and FedEx will deliver on most Federal holidays. Mail is received and sent at 8:00 a.m. Monday through Friday. First Class mail is immediately processed and has priority over all other mail. UPS and FedEx normally deliver and pick up between 11:30 a.m. and 2:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

- The post office will forward mail after graduation or withdrawal, if a forwarding address is provided. First Class mail will be forwarded for 60 days. All other mail will be forwarded for 30 days.
- All mail must use a return address and have the C-N box number on each piece.
- Mail should not be smaller than 3" x 5". Smaller sized mail may not be delivered.
- If more than 10 pieces, put in numerical order with a rubber band around them and bring to the window. Do not drop in the intra-college box. For intra-college that is distributed by the post office, please allow up to three work days for distribution.
• There is a charge for all non-C-N mail or flyers. If the post office employees distribute: $0.10 per copy. If the company distributes the mail, the charge is $0.05 per copy.
• Any campus organization may distribute bulk mailings after 1:00 p.m. This allows time for post office employees to distribute that day’s mail. Permission to “stuff” the boxes must be obtained from the postmaster or the bookstore manager before they can begin. If a full-time post office employee is not available, then the group is required to have their advisor or another faculty/staff present with them.

RESIDENCE LIFE
Students may use the Guide to Residential Living to find answers to questions related to residential living. The Guide to Residential Living serves as a supplement to the Eagle Student Handbook and outlines policies and procedures, which are unique to students living on campus. This document provides students with information related to room assignments, room changes, opposite gender visitation, quiet hours, and other policies related to community living. In addition, the Guide to Residential Living has information related to Residence Life staff, desk operations, residence hall council, and involvement with hall activities.

Students will be given a copy of the Guide to Residential Living when they arrive on campus in the fall. Students may obtain additional copies of this document in the Residence Life office (MSAC 2009).

On/ Off Campus Housing Policy
All full-time (12 hours and above) students are required to live on campus during their tenure at Carson-Newman College. Students who wish to move off campus must submit an Off Campus Living Approval Request Form and specify which exemption listed below applies to them. This form may be obtained online or in the Residence Life Office in MSAC 2009.

The following are exemptions to the housing policy:
• The student will be living with parent(s), immediate family and/or legal guardian(s) at their permanent address. (Although parent(s) / guardian(s) will be contacted for verification, requests must be accompanied by a letter from the parent(s) / guardian(s) confirming that the student will be living at their permanent address.)
• The student will be twenty-one (21) years of age or older before May 2, 2012.
• The student is/will be a junior with a minimum of sixty-four (64) earned credit hours. (If applying in the spring for the fall semester, the student must have 48 hours completed and 16 currently attempted.)
• The student is married.
• If the student does not meet the aforementioned criteria, they can request that the Off Campus Request Review Board consider their circumstances. (A written statement outlining the circumstances the student would like to be considered by the board must be included.) Information related to this process can be obtained through the Residence Life Office (MSAC 2009).

To avoid being billed for housing and meals, requests to live off campus must be submitted by the deadlines printed in the Guide to Residential Living. Students who live in off campus housing must adhere to the College Code of Conduct. Failure to do so may result in off campus approval being rescinded. Falsification of an off campus housing request is in violation of the College Code of Conduct (as outlined in the Eagle Student Handbook), and may result in rescinded off campus housing privileges, assessment of room and board charges, and/or disciplinary action. All Review Board decisions are final. Students who wish to live off campus must complete an off campus request form and receive approval from the Residence Life office. If a student’s course load drops below 12 hours, the student is required to obtain permission from the Director of Residence Life to continue to live on campus.

Please note that financial aid is processed based on the student’s on-campus status. If a student’s housing status changes, their financial aid package may also change. If a student wishes to know how living on or off campus may affect him or her, they must contact the Office of Financial Assistance.

SEARCH AND SEIZURE
Entry by Carson-Newman College authorities into assigned rooms in residence halls will be divided into three categories: inspection, search, and emergency.

A. Inspection - The entry by college officials into an occupied room in order to ascertain the general welfare of students, to determine health and safety conditions in the room, to check the physical conditions of the room, to make repairs on facilities, or to perform cleaning and janitorial operations. Inspection is not necessarily conducted in the presence of the room occupant(s).

B. Search - The entry by college officials into an assigned room for the purpose of (1) investigating suspected violations of campus regulations and/or city, state or federal law and (2) investigating circumstances which require immediate attention.

In order to enforce college policies, college officials upon "reasonable cause to believe" may enter an individual room; make a search for and seizure of illegal or otherwise forbidden items, which may be used as evidence in any subsequent disciplinary proceedings. Such searches will be in the presence of the student concerned except in situations that require immediate attention thus making said presence impractical. Searches will be conducted by a college official, accompanied by at least one other person. Searches conducted by local, state, or federal police will require a valid search warrant or consent of the party whose person or property is to be searched.

The college reserves the right to partner with a non-governmental agency to conduct searches on campus using drug-sniffing dogs.

C. Emergency - The entry by college authorities into an assigned room when there is perceived imminent danger to persons, properties or buildings. Emergency entry is not necessarily conducted in the presence of the room occupant(s).

SEXUAL HARASSMENT (See Discrimination and Harassment)

SMOKING POLICY
1. Smoking and the use of smokeless tobacco are not allowed within any building or facility, including athletic fields and stadiums.
2. Smoking is not allowed on the main campus grounds.
3. Smoking is permitted in the following six designated parking lots:
   - East of the Pedersen Nursing Building
   - North of Butler Hall
   - West of the Music Building
• West of Burnett Hall
• North of Henderson Humanities Building
• South of Holt Fieldhouse and behind campus ministries

4. Smoking in the designated parking lot areas will not be allowed within 50 feet of windows, doors, or air intakes of any campus building.

5. State law provides for a $50 fine for violation of the Tennessee Non-Smoker’s Protection Act. Violation of the C-N tobacco policy may also result in disciplinary action by the College.

SOLICITATION/SURVEYS
Student organizations will be permitted to solicit money or initiate fund raising projects with prior approval of the Vice President for Advancement and the Director of Student Activities.

Faculty, staff members, and students are not permitted to sell, solicit, or conduct any business operation or distribution of literature (including surveys) in the residence halls or on campus without written permission from the Director of Residence Life (for matters pertaining to the residence halls) and/or Director of Student Activities (for matters pertaining to other areas of campus). The residence life staff will also be notified of the permission for situations involving the residence halls.

Outside vendors who wish to conduct business on campus must first obtain prior permission from the Director of Safety and Security. Approved outside vendors will be provided temporary credentials and must sign in with the Director of Safety and Security at the Safety and Security building located at 2209 Branner Avenue, behind the campus cafeteria. The Safety and Security office phone number is (865) 548-9067.

Student organizations may use the Maddox Student Activities Center to sell tickets or merchandise, provided that permission has been granted by the Director of the MSAC and Recreational Services.

Persons not coordinating with the appropriate administrators listed above will be asked to terminate the process immediately. Students may be subject to disciplinary action.

VOTER REGISTRATION
The college encourages students to vote and otherwise participate in the election process. Students who are residents of Tennessee may secure voter information from the Student Activities office. Additional information can be obtained from the courthouse in Dandridge, Tennessee. Students register and vote in the county of their residence. Carson-Newman students may mail the completed registration form to the county election commission in the Tennessee County of their residence. Persons 18 or older are eligible to vote.
