Community Life and Worship Mission Statement

Community Life and Worship provides student-focused events which integrate faith, learning and community for students, faculty and staff. The events consist of chapel on Tuesday mornings (Community Worship) and other specified co-curricular programming (Community Life) open to the entire campus community and supporting the mission, purpose and Christian heritage of Carson-Newman University.

Core Values

- Develop a personal, maturing relationship with God the Creator, Redeemer, Sustainer
- Worship and glorify God corporately and individually
- Embrace community while valuing diversity
- Gain awareness of different Christian worship styles and faith traditions
- Engage global issues from a Christian perspective
- Live responsibly as Christ's servants in the world
- Cultivate an understanding and appreciation of the fine arts
- Understand the mission, Baptist heritage, and traditions of Carson-Newman University
- Think critically about matters of faith
- Pursue wholeness in mind, body and soul

2019-20 CLW Event Selection Criteria

1. Must be a campus-wide event open to all students.
2. Must be sponsored by a C-N department or C-N chartered organization, club, or group.
3. Should reflect high standards of excellence regarding organization and presentation.
4. Must meet the fall semester deadline of October 1 and the spring semester deadline of February 1.
5. Must support at least one of the CLW core values listed above.
6. Organizations, clubs, and groups may request one event per semester and departments may request three events per semester within the maximum number of offered events approved by the Campus Ministries Department.
7. Off-campus events will not be approved.
8. Events are reviewed on a semester-by-semester basis and inclusion in a given semester does not insure future credit.
