

Robert D. McCray Vocational Ministry Scholarship

The Robert D. McCray Vocational Ministry Scholarship provides financial assistance to Tennessee Baptist students who are preparing for church-related vocational ministry. The scholarship, after initial award, can be reviewed and renewed annually upon application and acceptance for a total of four years. The annual award is $1000.00.

Requirements for initial eligibility:

- The applicant plans to pursue Christian church-related vocational ministry in the Baptist tradition.
- Letter of endorsement and certification by a Tennessee Baptist church, either through ordination, license, or statement of certification.
- Submission of scholarship application forms to the Dean of the School of Religion by May 1.
- Submission of a written testimony that gives evidence of salvation experience and God's leading to vocational ministry.
- Letter of recommendation from home pastor, certifying applicant's involvement with, support of, and commitment to the applicant's home church.

Requirements for scholarship renewal eligibility:

- The applicant continues to plan on pursuing a Christian church-related vocational ministry in the Baptist tradition.
- Letter of certification from an east Tennessee Baptist church, certifying applicant's involvement with, support of, and commitment to a local Baptist church.
- Submission of scholarship renewal forms to the Dean of the School of Religion.
- Submission of an updated written testimony that gives evidence of God's continued leading to vocational ministry.
- The maintaining of a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5 for previous coursework.
- Attendance at all activities, meetings and/or coursework during the previous year that is required of all scholarship recipients.

Eligibility for the ministry scholarship must be reviewed and reaffirmed annually. The renewal application should be completed and submitted prior to May 1 each year.

Further scholarship requirements include:

- All scholarship recipients must successfully complete REL 201 "Introduction to Ministry" which includes both a classroom element and a field experience internship during their third (preferable) or fourth year of study.
- All scholarship recipients must attend two McCray events each semester. These may include fellowship, educational, and/or service opportunities. These meetings are planned in order to provide additional resources for enhancing vocational ministry skills and peer fellowship support. A ministry scholarship recipient may forfeit his or her financial assistance for the following and succeeding semesters by not meeting this requirement. Make-up assignments for absences will be provided at the discretion of the Dean of the School of Religion.

- All scholarship recipients are to be involved in the life of a local Tennessee Baptist church during their course of study, certified through scholarship renewal application each year.
- Any scholarship recipient will forfeit financial assistance if he or she commits a behavioral infraction that results in disciplinary probation.
- Recipients are encouraged to attend all on-campus opportunities for ministry enrichment provided to east Tennessee pastors through the Norton Institute for Congregational Health, including but not limited to its fall and spring pastors' conferences.
