Dear Mr. Maltman

My dress is ready & I hope tomorrow to find a suitable cloak & I have ordered the hat from my own milliner —

But until the mantle
is ready do you wish
to begin the picture?
Could it be of black
or do you prefer it white to get a brown one —

I think I better come on Tuesday instead of Monday as the letters
mouth may not be ready until then. But if you want me on Monday I will come if you will send me word.

I hope you enjoyed
your visit to Washington
