Classics, usual course; Mathematics—Robinson.

Text-books for the various Departments will be furnished at the College at reasonable charges.

It is contemplated to increase the Faculty by one or two of the best educators that can be secured.

No student need apply for admission who does not expect to be subject to the most rigid discipline. Parents and guardians may be confident that this will be enforced.

During the last year this Institution has been relieved of its entire indebtedness; also the buildings have been partially repaired: further repairs will be made during vacation, for the accommodation of young men who wish to board themselves. Liberal inducements are offered by the Trustees to students desiring to fit up rooms for themselves in the boarding houses.

All who wish to repair rooms are advised to select and repair them before the opening of the session.

Board can be procured in good families convenient to the College, from $2 00 to $2 50 per week.

For further particulars apply to the President.
