

CARSON COLLEGE.

Founded in 1853. Located at Mossy Creek, Jefferson Co., Tennessee. Railway, postal and telegraph connections complete.

Pure water, mild winters, cool summers, fresh mountain breezes, and a climate, for health, unsurpassed. Epidemics unknown.

The property includes, with seminary, four buildings and twenty-six acres of land. The main building, as seen above, has library, reading-room, four recitation rooms, and two beautiful and elegantly furnished society halls. The view is commanding and the scenery fine.

Faculty composed of able and experienced teachers. Instruction and studies practical and up with the times. Social culture and general information a specialty.

Three courses of study—the Classical, the Scientific, and the Normal and Business. Special studies for those who wish. A theological course and free scholarships for worthy young ministers.

The Preparatory Department fits for any course in this or any other College. Careful and thorough training under the immediate supervision and instruction of the College Faculty.

Special lectures a prominent feature. No college barbarisms. Moral and religious influence all-pervading. No temptations to vice. No intoxicating liquors sold within eight miles.

School year divided into three terms. Fall term begins on the first Thursday in September. Tuition $7.50; $10.00 and $12.50 per term, according to advancement. Incidental fee $1.00 per term.

Expenses very low. Table board $1.50 per week. Board and lodging from $2.00 to $2.50 per week. Self-boarding is still cheaper. Washing 20 to 25 cents per week.

None but studious and well-ordered young men wanted or tolerated. Send us names. For further information address,
