

Correct Pronoun Use

1. Every citizen should exercise (his, their) right to vote.
2. However, if a person wants to vote, (she, they) must register first.
3. If a student misses the final exam, (you, he, they) will get an incomplete grade in the course.
4. Has someone forgotten (her, their) briefcase?
5. Every working mother needs good child care for (her, their) children.
6. Neither of these stores has handicapped parking spaces in (its, it's, their) lot.
7. If a driver doesn't know how to get somewhere, (he, you, they) should be willing to ask directions.
8. Each of these apartments has (its, it's, their) own private patio.
9. Nobody in (her, their) right mind would buy a used car from that dealer.
10. Every parent should read aloud to (his, their) young children.
11. Do you and (he, him) work for the same company?
12. She is a better skier than (I, me).
13. Steve and (I, myself) planned this party for you.
14. Many of (us, we) taxpayers find it difficult to prepare our own tax forms.
15. We hire people to prepare our taxes because we don't want to do the work (ourselves, ourselves).
16. The prize money from the state lottery was divided between (he, him) and three co-workers.
17. Tell my children or (me, I) when the birthday party will begin.
18. This wedding gift is for you and (he, him) to share in the years to come.
19. A person who gossips should be careful that people don't start talking about (him, them).
20. Each of these stores gives special discounts to (its, it's, their) best customers.
21. My sister and (I, me) share an apartment.
22. It is (he, him) who should help you.
23. Judy and (she, her) have the same birthday.
24. This gift is for (she, her) and her husband.
25. Give the information to Rashad and (I, me).
26. (We, Us) workers should demand higher wages.
27. Did you tell Paula and (he, him) the news?
28. Raising tuition is unfair to (we, us) students.
29. This secret is between you and (I, me).
30. Can you help Sergio and (I, me) plan the party?
31. The winners of the contest were (she, her) and Bob.
32. Don't park in spaces reserved for (we, us) people with disabilities.